City to Buy 364 Manual Parking Meters

CONTRACT FOR DEVICES TO BE SIGNED TODAY

Meters To Be Installed and In Working Order Within 30 Days, Mayor Says.

SPLIT CONTRACT OUT

Solicitor Rules Against Purchase of Devices From Two Companies.

Mayor W. J. Locke today announced that contracts will be signed later in the day for the purchase of 364 manual-type parking meters to be installed on downtown streets and in working order within 30 days

Locke said that signing of the contract is subject to approval of City Solicitor Marion D. Ward, and that he was awaiting a letter from Ward stating that splitting the contract between two companies, which Locke had planned to do, was prohibited by law

The mayor said the city planned to install 300 Mico manual meters and 64 meters made by the National Meter company of Canton, on the ground that the latter are cheaper and would do very well in the districts where they would not be used constantly.

Ward verbally informed Locke this morning that splitting the contract would be contrary to Ohio law as the purchase of public equipment must go to the "lowest and best" bidder.

Locke asked for a letter on this ruling and said the contract with the Mico would be signed as soon as he received the letter.

His decision today ends a long debate as to the type of meters to be installed, several officials preferring automatic meters.

Locke said today that Pittsburgh recently, chose the Mico meters and after using them for a number of months had purchased more of them. He pointed out the fact that more cities today are buying manual type than full automatic.

The Mico is a combination pen-

Election Board Seeks Volunteer Draft Day Crews

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON —(INS)— The draft board today announced that the machinery for registering 16,500,000 American men next Wednesday has been virtually completed and "all is in readiness.

The Richland county board of elections today called for volunteer registrars to help with the registration of men for selective training service next Wednesday.

George Balliet, chairman of the election board, said the 184 registrars appointed last week by the board would not be enough, in view of the fact that it will require an average of 20 minutes for each registrant.

"The board needs at least one more registrar for each of the 92 precincts, and offers from volunteers will be accepted by mail at the board of elections office in the courthouse," Balliet said.

Volunteers should list their name, address, and telephone number in letters or on cards addressed to the board of elections, he explained.

He suggested that office workers offer their services after

Willkie Attacks Class Fight; FDR Enters Ohio

LISTS FEDERAL AID SPENDING

Nominee Shows Differences In Expenditures and Tax Collections.

By THEODORE F. KOOP

BOSTON—Wendell L. Willkie accused the New Deal today of pitting class against class and section against section, not to promote industrial production "but to promote political profit."

"And worst of all," he said, "it does this at a time when, as the third term candidate said at Chickamagua a month ago, our essential need is absolute national unity."

The Republican presidential nominee made these statements in an excerpt prepared for a talk at Fall River, Mass., as he entered the second half of a four-day campaign tour through New England.

He closed the first portion last night with a speech at Providence, R. I., in which he predicted that a third term might put the permanently unemployed in concentration camps.

He also told the cheering crowd, huddled under overcoats and blankets, that it was "absurd and contradictory" for the United States to permit entry of goods made "by the oppressed workers of the dictatorships."

Willkie cited federal expenditures and internal revenue collections today to support his contention that the administration "has favored other sections of the country at your expense."

"Up here in Massachusetts," he said, "last year the New Deal expenditures amounted to $33 per person. But in that same year, the internal revenue collections of the federal government in Massachusetts amounted to $37 for every man, woman and child.

"In Alabama, the New Deal spent $34 per capita and it collected in internal revenue taxes $5 per capita. In Arkansas, the New Deal spent last year $40 per

TWO QUAKES

Los Angeles Alarmed by Sharp Shocks; No Damage Done.

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—(INS)—Two sharp earthquakes which shook Los Angeles and surrounding communities at 9.58 o'clock last night caused no damage, a check-up showed today.

The shocks came within 20 seconds of each other and were regarded as "sharp" ones, causing mild alarm. Furniture in numerous homes was shuttled around and dishes and windows rattled but beyond that no damage was reported.

Police telephone boards were flooded with calls, immediately after the shock, by frightened householders.

PLAN WELCOME FOR GOVERNOR

Bricker to Give Major Talk at Republican Rally Here Tonight.

With Ohio swinging into the national political spotlight today, Richland county Republicans planned a rousing welcome for Gov. John W. Bricker who will give one of his major campaign talks tonight at a rally at Republican headquarters here.

It will be one of the two big rallies of the campaign for county Republicans. Congressman J. Harry McGregor, seeking re-election, and a number of state candidates will appear here with the governor.

The meeting will begin at 8 p. m., but Gov. Bricker will arrive later from an Ashland rally.

In the national picture, President Roosevelt is scheduled to enter the state late this afternoon on his "non-political" tour of defense areas. The president will visit industrial plants in Youngstown and make brief stops in Newton Falls and Akron before going to Columbus to inspect Ft Hayes Saturday morning. From there he will go to Dayton.

With Mansfield as the first scheduled stop in the state. Wen-

MEAT CONTRACT MAKES RECORD

Argentina Gets $100,000,000 Order From Britain.

BUENOS AIRES—(AP)—Argentina and Britain have reached a satisfactory basis for the largest meat contract in the history of the Argentine packing industry — amounting to nearly $100,000,000 for one year, it was reported authoritatively today.

While details of the agreement still are not settled, informed sources close to both governments said that the negotiators agreed on means and terms of payment and other important factors.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. —(INS)— President Roosevelt made his first rear platform appearance of the current campaign when his special train stopped briefly this morning at Johnstown. Senator Joseph Guffey, (D. Pa.) appeared on the rear platform with him.

(By Associated Press)

ABOARD PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S SPECIAL TRAIN—President Roosevelt sped toward Pittsburgh today on the first leg of a two-day trip through Pennsylvania and Ohio to inspect defense industries and military stations, visit public housing projects and deliver a major address on hemisphere defense.

The journey was the eighth of its kind undertaken by the president in recent months.

In both Pennsylvania and Ohio, where a total of 62 electoral votes are at stake in the presidential election, many Democratic leaders arranged to board Mr. Roosevelt's train and accompany him during parts of the trip.

A brief stop was scheduled at Johnstown, Pa., to permit Senator Guffey (D., Pa.) Meredith Myers, the state Democratic chairman, and Luther A. Harr, Democratic state campaign manager, to come aboard.

Upon arriving at Pittsburgh (shortly before noon) today, the president planned to first visit the Carnegie-Illinois steel plant at Munhall and then later present the keys of the United States housing authority's 100,000th home to a steel worker and his family.

A statement issued in Washington by the housing authority said 100,000 other guests would attend

JOKE BOMB

Bowling Ball, Ticking Clock and Fuse in Package.

NEWPORT, Ky.—(U.P.)—The Newport city hall bomb scare turned out to be a "dud."

A package which emitted an ominous ticking sound was delivered yesterday to Miss Marcella Phistner, secretary to City Manager J. B. Moridge. It was addressed to City Purchasing Agent A. C. Joseph.

Miss Phistner and Joseph immediately tossed it outside the city building and called police. Patrolman Morris Hodesh who had experience with high explosives during the World war audaciously tore open the package.

Inside were one bowling ball, a fuse and a small alarm clock.

Police Chief Leo Livingston said several friends of Joseph admitted sending him the "bomb" as a joke.

Piggie Out of Doghouse Now

The porker that was rescued yesterday at a busy intersection and given temporary shelter at the Tony Gerger home, Fourth avenue, behaved very nicely and didn't act the pig when dinner was served to himself and two puppies. Porky Pig is shown above as he ate his meal with one of the Gerger puppies.

Itty Piggie's 'Mystery Escape' Finally Solved

He Comes Out of the Doghouse But Only to Learn That He's to Be the Big Noise at Lodge Dinner.

Out of the doghouse today came the "itty bitty piggie" whose thrilling adventure in a dash for freedom yesterday resulted in his capture by two members of the city street department, and his incarceration in a doghouse belonging to one of them.

The young porker, which was believed to have escaped from a truck while on the way to market, was sighted yesterday morning at the North Mulberry-West Fifth street intersection, dodging traffic, by Tony Gerger and Tom Day. They gave chase and brought him back alive.

With no owner in sight, the two men took the little squealer to the Gerger home and put it in Gerger's doghouse. Then they reported it to police.

Police already had sent out word for officers to be on the look out for the piggie, whose destiny will be to grace the table when the Eagles lodge gives a pig roast in December.

The Eagles are conducting a membership drive, and as is the custom, the winners will be feted by the losers—at a pig roast. But one of the stipulations is that during the drive the captain of the team with the lowest points must keep the pig for a week.

This week found Robert Matthews captain of the lowest-point team and so Porky Pig was confined in the Matthews garage. It escaped from its prison yesterday morning and trotted out into a big, unknown world filled with flying rubber tires and squawking horns which only served to bewilder the little feller.

Now he's back in the Matthews garage after having cried "wee, wee, wee all the way home."

And as recompense for having saved the piggie from possible death beneath the wheels of some auto, Gerger and Day will be guests at the Eagles' pig roast—that is, if the two tender-hearted rescuers can stand to see their erst-while pet with an apple in his mouth and his sides dripping with brown, crackling fat.

BASE SURVEY

Army and Navy Send Experts For Newfoundland Work.

WASHINGTON — (U.P.) — The army and navy have sent experts to Newfoundland to begin preliminary work on new defense bases to be constructed there, it was learned today.

Although confirmation was lacking from either service, it was understood that present plans call for construction of three separate harbor bases with protective fortifications, and two airports.

When the naval experts complete their final survey in Newfoundland they will go to Bermuda—another of the sites for bases acquired from Great Britain.

Army engineers will conduct surveys preliminary to construction of fortifications and airports. The navy will concentrate on ship bases and off-shore development work.

Frank G. Carpenter, Traveler and Author, Chosen for Journalism's Hall of Fame

He's Second Mansfield Man to Be Honored At O. S. U.

A pioneer in syndicate writing who crossed the ocean 29 times and sold over 8,000,000 words Frank G. Carpenter, Mansfield native, will have his name added to the Ohio State University Journalism hall of fame.

His name will be placed on the roster in formal ceremonies at the university on Nov. 1. He will be the second Mansfielder to be so honored. The first was W. S. Capeller, founder of the Mansfield News, who was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1937.

Selection of Mr. Carpenter, along with Nathaniel Willis, late noted editor of the Chillicothe Scioto Gazette, was announced today by Dr. James Pollard director of the Ohio State school of journalism

Candidates are chosen by a

Anti-Aircraft Fire Improved By Defenders

Formation of 9 German Planes Turns Tail When Archie Shells Burst In Front of It; Regular Night Raid Shortened.

BULLETIN

LONDON—(INS)—A heavy attack by units of the British navy on the French port of Cherbourg was announced by the admiralty today. A brief announcement disclosing the first major offensive by the fleet itself against German-held channel ports said: "Cherbourg was bombarded by heavy and light forces of the navy last night. Large fires were visible from our ships returning home over a distance of 40 miles. Our ships met no opposition from the enemy either during the approach or retirement, but the main forces came under fire when returning, from enemy shore batteries."

(By Associated Press)

LONDON—Four times today the German air force thrust at London's defenses and four times, according to the British, they were hurled back by RAF fighter patrols and ground gunners.

A swift succession of air raid alarms and all-clear signals, the rumble of anti-aircraft fire and the drone of protecting planes told Londoners the story of attack and defense.

That was the situation up to mid-afternoon.

Reports came from the Kent coast that 40 German fighters flying at great height crossed the channel during the morning and proceeded inland.

A formation of nine German planes was said to have turned tail when anti-aircraft shells burst in front of it.

The Nazi raiders soared over England anew after breaking off their regular night attack much earlier than usual. They were believed to have dropped many time bombs on the embattled island during the widespread dusk to dawn assaults.

Liverpool dispatches said 40 high explosive bombs dropped on its port and shipyards in the longest raid of the war in that area, resulting in several casualties. Three bombs narrowly missed a movie theater.

Several narrow escapes were reported in the London night raids.

One hundred employes of a London club escaped injury when a bomb fell near their basement shelter. Barricaded windows were blown in.

A watchman in a one-man "cylinder" shelter was uninjured, although a building was demolished above his refuge.

Scores of persons sleeping in a shelter under a seven-story office building were unhurt although buildings on three sides were wrecked.

The air ministry said five German bombers were shot down yesterday and five British planes were lost. Two of the british pilots were reported safe, however.

Observers said the night attack was much less severe than pre-

NERVOUS: Russians Worried By German Action In Balkans

(By United Press)

BUCHAREST, Rumania — (Passed By Censor) — The nervousness in Russian circles here was heightened today by the disclosure that Germany was sending into Rumania $82,500,000 worth of armaments

That sum is one-fourth of Rumania's annual budget and Russians believed Germany would not be sending such an amount of fighting equipment here without impelling reasons.

German military activity in this country, explained in German quarters as "precautionary," to prevent the British from bombing Rumanian oil fields, was of obvious concern to local Russians.

Reports from the border of Russian-occupied Bessarabia said Russians were "digging in," but no major Russian troop movements had been reported in the eastern zone.

The usually calm diplomats of the British legation, who have held on through one Rumanian crisis after another, were making definite plans to clear out.

(In London, authoritative sources said Britain was weighing the advisability of breaking diplomatic relations with Rumania but that the final decision awaited later news from Sir Reginald Hoare, British minister to Bucharest.

His messages to London were suffering long delays and Britons believed Rumanian officials were holding them up at German instigation. The Daily Mail's Bucharest correspondent, Cedric Salter,

SLAIN: Shanghai's Puppet Mayor Killed During Sleep

BULLETIN

SHANGHAI — (AP) — Despite Japanese denials usually well-informed sources insisted tonight that 14,000 Chinese soldiers of the Japanese-dominated Nanking government were concentrated outside Shanghai while rumor had it that Japan plans to take over the international settlement or the French concession Oct. 18.

(By Associated Press)

SHANGHAI — Baffled Japanese military authorities turned the Hongkew section of Shanghai upside down today in a hunt for an unidentified assassin who slew their Chinese puppet mayor, Fu Siao-En, as he slept in his closely guarded home early this morning.

The mysterious killing, characterized by the Japanese as an "inside job," climaxed a series of acts of violence which have taken the lives of several prominent pro-Japanese Chinese in recent months.

Shanghai municipal police said the Japanese had asked them to help locate a trusted personal servant of Fu's, one Sung Tsu-En, who was reported missing after the killing.

The 70-year-old mayor's throat was slashed while his wife slept in an adjoining bed and 20 armed guards patrolled the grounds of his home. Madame Fu awakened in time to hear stealthy footsteps retreating from the room but could give no clue to the killer's identity.

A Japanese officer was shot dead by unknown persons just outside Hongkew about the same time Fu was killed but there was no immediate evidence the two events were connected.

The mayor considered his residence in the Japanese-controlled stronghold of Hongkew the safest of the several homes between which he divided his time, never sleeping two consecutive nights in the same bed.

Japanese barricaded all streets leading from Hongkew to the

PRESENT THREE NEW BOOKS TO PUBLIC LIBRARY

Timely Topics Club Members Provide Gift; Volume Tells of Pre-War South.

Members of the Timely Topics club this week presented the Mansfield Public Library with three books, "Revolt" by Bunker, Carbery's "The Farm by Lough Gur" and "Murder in a Nunnery" by Shepherd. Among other new books on the library shelves this week is "Foundation Stone" by Lella Warren, which offers a true picture of the pre-war south and of the plantation life that was shattered by the Civil war.

On the non-fiction list is Margaret Armstrong's "Trelawny," a biography of Edward Trelawny, who did everything from fighting for the freedom of Greece to capturing a pirate down in Madagascar.

Other new books on the fiction list:

THE HAPPY HIGHWAY by Francis Brett Young is the story of one man who had the courage to break away from convention and take to the road over the horizon toward any adventure chance might provide.

Clyde Brion Davis, author of "The Arkansas," scores another hit with his new novel, SULLIVAN, which is a rakish, idiomatic, vigorous odyssey of a thoroughly American young man with a fixed idea. It tells of the hilarious adventures of a secret floater and of a Pro-Iscariot stonecutter.

Other fiction: WHEN IN THE COURSE by Wilson; MR. & MRS. MEIGS, Corbett; DEATH IS AN EARLY RISER, Bigelow.

TRELAWNY by Margaret Armstrong is the biography of that romantic figure, Edward Trelawny, a contemporary of Fanny Kemble, Byron, and a great friend of Shelley. Ardent alike in friendship, passion, and love of freedom, Trelawny lived a long life of almost incredible adventure.

BEYOND TEARS by Irmgard Littne is a personal indictment of the Nazi regime. The book, more powerful because of its simplicity, tells of the gargantuan struggle of a mother to save her son, accused only of humanitarianism, from the terrible tortures of the concentration camp. Mrs. Litten writes in a mood of tranquility after having recollected the horrors of her experiences.

AND SO TO BATH by Cecil Roberts is the very essence of the England that enchants the traveler—with its ancient inns, thatched villages, and garden-like countryside. Dashing blades, dandies, highwaymen, great ladies, and kings' mistresses are also included in this historically conducted tour along that famous road that takes one out of London and so to Bath.

In his new book, HARLEM: NEGRO METROPOLIS, Claude McKay traces the brief yet startling history of that strange city within a city. Here, too, one reads of the exploits of Father Divine, Marcus Aurelius Gavey, and many other colorful figures of Harlem.

Other non-fiction: FROM ALLEY POND TO ROCKEFELLER CENTER, by Brown; WAGNER ACT by Mariano; DEAD HAND OF BUREAUCRACY, Sullivan; COUNTRY SQUIRE IN THE WHITE HOUSE, Flynn; DEMOCRACY AND THE THIRD TERM, Rodell; IDLE MONEY, IDLE MEN, Chase; DEFENSE FOR AMERICA, White; THE CONTEMPORARIES, Huyghe.

Books For Children

(Available at Mansfield Public Library)

This week we are reminded of the heroism of the one who first crossed the Atlantic to discover America. Every child has sometime studied about Christopher Columbus but the story becomes more interesting as we know more of the man himself and of the circumstances surrounding his exploration. Any of the older boys who like adventure will enjoy these new books about Columbus.

SONS OF THE ADMIRAL, by Harmon and Shumway—When Columbus was asking for help to finance his exploration he was accompanied by his older son, then only a small boy. During the voyages Diego remained in Barcelona as a page in the court. The story of the expeditions in this book is told as it was seen by Diego and his younger brother, Fernando.

COLUMBUS SAILS, by C. Walter Hodges. The biography of Columbus is here told in four parts. The first is the story of a monk at the monastery in Spain which housed Columbus and his son before the voyage. The second and third parts are told of a sailor who made the trips in the Santa Maria. The last part of the story told by an Indian taken from the new land back to Spain after the first voyage.

GLATTKE TO PRESIDE AS PRISON WARDENS MEET IN CINCINNATI

Arthur L. Glattke, superintendent of the Ohio State Reformatory, will preside at the opening session of the Wardens association convention which will be held in Cincinnati Oct. 21-25 in connection with the annual congress of the American Prison association.

The wardens' group will open its convention at 2:30 p. m. Monday, Oct. 21, with Glattke, president of it, presiding.

The occasion will mark the 70th birthday anniversary of the founding of the American Prison association, and because it had its inception at Cincinnati, the Queen City was selected for the birthday congress. The coming convention will be something of a homecoming as well as a birthday anniversary.

Vital problems in the administration of prisons and reformatories, in preventative work in juvenile adjustment, will be subjects discussed, according to Glattke.

There are a number of auxiliary groups to the prison association, the Wardens being one of the largest and most important. The Mansfield Reformatory head also will preside at the evening meeting on the 21st, when James V. Bennett, president of the parent association, will make his presidential address.

Dr. Wilfrid M. Gill, psychiatrist for the reformatory, is scheduled to appear on the program on Oct. 24, with "Four Thousand Psychiatric Examinations" as his subject.

CAST CHOSEN

Seniors Select 'New Fires' as Play for Class.

Rehearsals for "New Fires," Senior class play, got underway this week when the cast held its initial workouts in the Mansfield Senior high school auditorium.

William Fink will head the cast of "New Fires," which will be presented in the auditorium early in December, E. L. Heasley, director, announced today.

Other members of the cast include William Eisele, Joan Watson, Ada Mae Harbaugh, Maxine Zimmerman, Richard Payne, Ruth Hudson, Joe Keifer, Mary Burkholder, Theodore Wendt, Max Heiz, Howard Hershey, Pearl Rube and Esther Grauer.

"New Fires" is a three act comedy.

Ends 52 Years as Grocer In Same Place of Business

Fifty-two years in the same place of business and at the same location. That's the record of Alpha D. Rinehart, part owner of the Park grocery at the east side of Central park.

Rinehart has just finished his 52 years of service in the store where he began as a clerk and errand boy when he was 16. He came to Mansfield from near Jeromesville early in October, 1888, to work in the store.

His longest absence from the grocery was a six-months leave 21 years ago to recuperate from a major operation. He's still as enthusiastic about the grocery business as when he started and he has no immediate intention of retiring.

For more than a half century Rinehart has watched the growth of Mansfield from across Central park, and "it doesn't look like the same place now," he commented.

The north and east sides of the park square have shown the least change in the past 32 years, but the other two sides have virtually been made over, the veteran grocer said.

THREE BUILDING PERMITS ISSUED

Three building permits totalling more than $15,000 were issued this morning at City building, two for dwellings and one for a warehouse.

PLAN WELCOME FOR GOVERNOR

Bricker to Give Major Talk at Republican Rally Here Tonight.

dell L. Willkie, the G.O.P. presidential candidate, will return to Ohio Wednesday for six talks.

Richland county Republican leaders were informed today that Willkie will be in Mansfield at 10 a. m. Wednesday instead of 9 a. m. as previously announced. He will be here from 10 to 10:20 a. m., speaking from the rear platform of his train on the Erie tracks east of North Main street.

A delegation of county Republican leaders is expected to meet the Willkie train at Kent and return here with the party Wednesday morning.

On the Democratic side, the Richland County Young Democratic club will meet at 8 p. m. today at the courthouse to map plans for rallies in the county and 17th district.

Former Governor Martin L. Davey, the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, and John McSweeney, Democratic candidate for U. S. senator, will be the principal speakers at a county Democratic rally Tuesday night in Senior high school auditorium.

The Democratic meeting will be the first of a series of three major rallies in the county, party leaders said.

A number of Richland county Republican women went to Columbus today to attend a statewide G.O.P. women's meeting at which Gov. Bricker was to be the main speaker. It was estimated that 2,000 women would attend the session.

Clevelander Now Knows That Court Taboos Excuses

The next time that Nick Sobetto, Cleveland, is ordered into court he'll undoubtedly remember to appear promptly.

It cost Sobetto $25 yesterday because he failed to be in municipal court to answer to a charge of speeding.

Arrested on U. S. route 42, south of Lexington, Wednesday, by state highway patrolmen, the Clevelander posted $25 for appearance yesterday at 9:30 a. m.

When he failed to appear in court Judge G. E. Kalbfleisch ordered the bond forfeited. The usual fine and costs on the charge amounts to $11.30.

Three hours later Sobetta showed up, but the records had already been prepared and were in the mail on their way to Columbus. Sobetto told court ataches he had "car trouble" on the way to Mansfield from Cleveland.

CLOSED FOR DAY

Banks, State Offices to Mark Columbus Day Holiday.

All state offices and banks in Mansfield will be closed Saturday in the observance of Columbus Day.

Orders for closing state offices came through the governor's office in Columbus and will affect employment, sales tax, liquor store and aid for the aged offices in Mansfield.

Columbus Day will be celebrated here by the Mansfield council 687 of the Knights of Columbus, which will stage Columbus Day programs at the Knights of Columbus hall.

INSPECTS STEEL PLANT ON TRIP

President Comes to Ohio on Defense Journey; Plans Dayton Speech.

the "housewarming" party at the Terrace Village housing project in Pittsburgh. The family moving into the new home—Lester Churchfield, 26, his wife, Pearl, and their three children, Rosemary, 4, Richard, 3, and Robert, 2—was described in the same statement as typical of thousands "being removed from the slums and rehoused in decent dwellings at rents within their means."

Mr. Roosevelt was to be joined at Pittsburgh by David L. Lawrence, Democratic national committeeman for Pennsylvania.

From Pittsburgh, the chief executive will proceed to Youngstown, Ohio, for an afternoon inspection tour of a Youngstown sheet and tube plant and other industries manufacturing defense materials.

YOUNGSTOWN —(AP)—Youngstown prepared to close up shop today—from 2:45 p. m. on—in honor of President Roosevelt's visit to inspect steel mills working on government orders for national defense.

City and county offices will close at noon and retail stores at 2:45 p. m. Shortly before the president's arrival.

From Youngstown, the chief executive's special train will go to Newton Falls where he will observe the site of a planned federal arsenal without leaving his train. A 10-minute operating stop at Akron en route to Columbus also is scheduled.

Gov. John W. Bricker, Republican, will accompany Mr. Roosevelt on an inspection tour of Fort Hayes in Columbus Saturday morning. Later, it was announced, the president will confer with former Gov. Martin L. Davey, Democratic nominee for governor; John McSweeney, Democratic U. S. senatorial nominee, and Stephen M. Young and Francis W. Durbin, Democratic candidates for congressman-at-large.

After an hour and a half in Columbus, the president will go to Dayton to inspect Wright field, visit the Wright memorial, veterans' facility and the home of former Gov. James M. Cox. He will broadcast an address on western hemisphere defense at 9 p. m. Saturday.

Half-Brother Lived Only Two Doors Away, Rookie Says.

COLUMBIA, S. C.—(AP)—A recruit advised Fort Jackson army officers his half-brother was his nearest relative.

"Your father and mother aren't living?" asked an officer.

"Yes sir," he replied, "but my half-brother lives only two doors from me."

Tygers Try to Keep Record Clean Against Sandusky

Tackle Streaks Tonight

Mansfield Fans Will Have Chance to See Great Punter in Action.

WHEN Mansfield high football fans travel to Sandusky to see the Tygers battle for their fifth straight victory against the Blue Streaks they will have a chance to see one of the district's finest high school punters.

The lad is Ben Fleming, Sandusky's triple-threat backfield star, and his kicking this year has been a highlight of the Blue Streaks' play.

Against Canton McKinley last week the colored youth punted once from his own 35 and the ball rolled over the goal line. Several times he got off kicks of 55 and 60 yards.

His expert toe work enabled the Blue Streaks to give the Canton team a battle the first half. The half ended with Sandusky trailing, 12 to 6.

Mansfield will have to keep possession of the ball most of the time if they expect to emerge with the decision. Sandusky has been beaten four times this year and might suddenly come to life against the Tygers.

If the Blue Streaks can force the Mansfield attack to bog down, Fleming's educated toe may keep the Tygers back in their own territory.

* * *

Snyder's aggregation will be out to score their second consecutive win over the Sandusky outfit. The Tygers turned back the Blue Streaks by a 9 to 0 count last season.

Mansfield Bantams Will Meet Cleveland Skippies.

The Eagles lodge Bantamweight football team will play one of its toughest contests of the season Sunday when it travels to Cleveland to meet the Cleveland Skippies, national bantamweight champions. The Skippies have lost only two games out of 64. The Mansfield team will play the game minus Krupp, a star lineman, who suffered a fractured ankle in last Sunday's game at the fairground when they lost to the Akron Bees 6 to 0. New jerseys, recently purchased, will be worn by the Eagles for the first time in Sunday's game.

Madison Entertains Tiffin Junior Order

National Westinghouse Softball Champions

Pictured above is the Mansfield Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing team which won the national Westinghouse employes' softball tournament championship at Pittsburgh in September. The club, accompanied by Bob Richards of the Mansfield plant, left last night for New York and the world's fair. They will attend the fair today and see two football games before returning home Sunday night. The team will watch the Tulane-Fordham tilt Saturday and the Philadelphia Eagles-New York Giants National professional league tussle Sunday. In the front row are, left to right, Fritz Vogel, Harold Geiger, Jimmy Stout, Frank Balbaugh, Gerald Schaffer and Fred Garver. Second row, left to right, Harry Ross, Ed Henrich, George Hummel, Ed Channell, Paul Wolfe, Tommy Moxley, and the official scorer, Earl Jones. Back row, left to right, Earl Foreman, Lloyd Beal and George Bosko. The players were awarded the trip and the Schumaker trophy (shown in picture) for winning the title.

Rams Out to Register Initial 1940 Win Against Rivals.

ONE TEAM fighting to retain its undefeated and untied record and one seeking to register its first victory of the season will be the attraction for football fans in this area when the Madison high school Rams play host to Tiffin Junior Order under the lights at 8 p. m. today at the Madison field.

Tiffin is the team boasting a four-game winning streak and with the undefeated and untied record while Madison has yet to win its first game of the season.

* * *

Tiffin, a dangerous eleven, is expected to offer the Rams plenty of trouble before tonight's tilt is over, while Coach Al Fendrick's Rams, after a week of stiff practice, will be trying for an upset.

* * *

The Rams this year have already dropped decisions to Wooster, New London, Dennison and Orrville.

* * *

Tonight's tilt will be preceded at 6:30 p. m. by a game between Woodville and Lincoln Heights in the Madison township junior high school grid loop.

Club Members, Friends To Attend Annual Dance.

Possum Run club members and their friends will attend the annual Trophy dance at Possum Run at 9:30 p. m. Saturday night. The 1940 club tournament championship trophies will be presented at the affair, "Irish" McGee, club manager, announced today. Ira Metcalf and his orchestra will provide music for the dance.

Junior High Team Registers Easy 43-0 Victory Over Butler Juniors.

SCORING in all but one period the Johnny Appleseed junior high school football team chalked up its first victory of the season yesterday afternoon when it smothered the Butler high reserves 43 to 0 in a game played before a crowd of about 700 on the Appleseed athletic field.

Coach Paul Cameron's charges didn't wait long to get their touchdown parade started, scoring three times in the initial period, and once in the second to hold a lead of 25 to 0 at half time.

Frank Beckel, right half, led the parade, scoring two of Appleseed's touchdowns, both on long runs.

He crossed the goal line the first time after a run of 55 yards and his second tally came after a 40-yard run. A Bob Moorehead to Bill Roush pass accounted for another score.

Other touchdowns were made by Lee Moorehead, who also kicked an extra point, Albert Etzel, and Allen Kinkel.

* * *

Next Wednesday Appleseed travels to Galion to engage Galion high reserves and next Friday night the team meets John Simpson under the lights at Stadium field.

THERE'S A NEW CUSHION IN THE WILSON HOME

CINCINNATI —(AP)— There's a new cushion in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Wilson. The wife of the 40-year-old Reds' catcher asked club officials for the keystone sack which Jimmy stole in the last game of the world series and they agreed to let her take it to Philadelphia as a souvenir.

INJURED GRID PLAYER FIGHTING FOR LIFE

CLEVELAND —(AP)— William Gray, 16-year-old high school football player fought for his life today with his Garfield Heights team trying to help him.

Twenty-five teammates offered blood for transfusions ordered when his condition became critical. Three were chosen. Gray suffered lacerations of the liver in practice.

Northwestern Gridders Receive Acid Tests Against Buckeyes

EVANSTON, Ill. —(INS)— The Northwestern university Wildcats, impressive but untested in its 40 to 0 rout of Syracuse last week, will get the yardstick put on its "darkhorse" rating as the rugged Ohio State eleven, defending the western conference championship, comes to Dyche stadium Saturday afternoon to open the Big Ten season for the Wildcats.

A crowd of more than 40,000 is expected to see the Buckeyes in their lone appearance this season in the Chicago area. The game will be the home debut of the Northwestern squad.

Both teams come up to this game unbeaten. The Syracuse game represents the Purple's sole effort this year, while Ohio State has defeated Pittsburgh, 30-7 and Purdue, 17-14.

The Wildcat's backfield, according to the rail birds, leaves little to be desired. The backs are big and rugged and the passing is called "tremendous."

In action will be Don Clawson, who seems headed for all-Big Ten honors; Bill De Correvont, the heralded sensation of 1939 who has benefitted from a year's experience; and veterans Paul Soper, Ike Kepford, Tuffy Chambers and Captain Dick Richards.

There won't be a finer array of backs on any field in any game in the season as will grace Dyche stadium Saturday. Alined against the Wildcats' great outfit are Ohio State's Don Scott, touted as the "back of the year," Capt. Jim Langhurst, Jimmy Strausbaugh, Tom Kinkade, Dick Fisher and two or three others.

The Ohio State backfield will be operating behind a line which outweighs the Wildcat forward wall some 15 pounds to a man—but Purdue was also outweighed by that same margin and you remember what happened.

Lynn Waldorf took over Northwestern football back in 1935, and Ohio State has been his biggest problem. The Buckeyes are always spotted early on the Wildcat schedule. Invariably a formidable squad, Ohio generally is at its best early in the campaign. And conversely, Northwestern teams under Waldorf have developed slowly, reaching their peak in November.

This fact has reacted to the Wildcats' disadvantage in the last five years with the result that Ohio comes to Dyche stadium with a heavy victory margin over Waldorf-coached Northwestern elevens. The Buckeyes have beaten the purple eleven three times while tying once and losing once.

The one victory the Wildcats have scored was important, because it contributed heavily to the winning of the 1936 conference title.

* * *

But the three defeats all have given Wildcat championship hopes in other years a serious setback right at the race's outset, and it is a similar situation which confronts the northwestern team Saturday as it moves against the power-packed scarlet eleven from Columbus.

Five Other Games on Tap For Fans Tonight.

(By Associated Press)

A half dozen Ohio college football teams will see action tonight five in a trio of games on Ohio gridirons and one in Chicago.

Tony Aiello and Marun Vardaro, with two touchdowns and a conversion point each, and Dick Sontag, with one touchdown, paced a Youngstown attack which netted 20 first downs in the Presbyterians' lap.

MACPHAIL DENIES DEAL

NEW YORK —(INS)— Reports that he and Fay Murray, wealthy president of the Nashville club, were attempting to make a deal for the Boston Bees brought a denial today from Miss Murray's friend of the Boston Braves.

Heiser Out Of Lineup

Mansfield Boy Withdraws From Ashland Team.

ASHLAND — The services of Daryl Heiser, tackle for Ashland college, will be lost for the remainder of the year, and possibly for all the time he is in school, it was announced here by Frank Lonero, coach.

* * *

Heiser, who weighs 175 pounds and who saw service in the game against Heidelberg withdrew from the squad on the advice of his doctor.

* * *

Organic ligaments and muscles believes due to a neck injury received from being kicked were held responsible for his actions.

Barker Picks Fighting Irish to Beat Georgia Tech

Also Selects Fordham and Ohio State

Scribe Strings Along With Carnegie Tech As College Teams Get Set.

By HERB BARKER

NEW YORK—(AP)—Playing the weekly game of football blind man's bluff:

Notre Dame-Georgia Tech: The Engineers nearly pulled last year's game out of the fire and take a fast, tricky squad to South Bend again. There's real danger for the Irish here but the vote goes to Notre Dame.

Harvard-Michigan: Since Harmon apparently is out to eclipse his brilliant 1939 record, there's no possible choice but Michigan.

Fordham-Tulane: If Boyle and Groves, the first-string guards, can play, Tulane's Green Wave might roll as it was supposed to before the season started. The latest word is they won't be in shape, so . . . Fordham.

Pitt-Southern Methodist: S. M. U. Illinois-Southern California: A sheer guess. Southern California. North Carolina-Texas Christian: Texas Christian gets the nod. Duquesne-South Carolina: Duquesne. Villanova-Florida: Villanova. U. C. L. A.—Texas Aggies: The Aggies.

Northwestern-Ohio State: Who brought this up? The Wildcats' line supposedly was a doubtful quantity, but there wasn't anything wrong with it against Syracuse. It's a gamble at best and the indicator spins and points to Ohio State.

Army-Cornell: This ballot for Cornell expresses doubt that Army is equipped to do more than keep the score within reasonable bounds.

Stanford-Santa Clara: The nod goes to Santa Clara. Clemson-Wake Forest: No tougher one on the Card but Wake Forest gets a shaky ballot. Texas-Oklahoma: Texas. Arkansas-Baylor: Baylor. Rice-Louisiana State: One doubtful, blinking vote for Rice. California-Washington State: Washington State. Oregon-Washington: Washington. Boston college-Temple: Boston college.

Penn-Yale: Penn. Princeton-Navy: Princeton. Dartmouth-Columbia: A timid vote for Columbia. Brown-Colgate: Colgate. Holy Cross-Carnegie Tech: Carnegie Tech. New York university-Syracuse: N. Y. U. Penn State-West Virginia: Even-Stephen—Penn State. Iowa-Wisconsin: Wisconsin. Nebraska-Indiana: Nebraska. Michigan State-Purdue: Purdue.

Auburn-Mississippi State: Auburn. Georgia-Mississippi: On the toss of a coin, Mississippi. Vanderbilt-Kentucky: Kentucky. Virginia-Maryland: Virginia. Citadel-Furman: Furman. Davidson-Virginia Military: V. M. I. William & Mary-Virginia Tech: William & Mary.

Washington & Lee-George Washington: George Washington. Kansas State-Missouri: Missouri. Kansas-Drake: Drake. Marquette-Iowa State: Marquette. Lehigh-Rutgers: Rutgers.

SPORTS PARADE

By HENRY McLEMORE

SOUTH BEND, Ind.—Now just a moment, folks. Before I write another word let me get oriented.

I'm not in Lexington, the home of the thoroughbred. That's where I was yesterday. I couldn't be in Cincinnati, because the world series is over. And I'm not in Detroit, because I left there last Sunday after watching Tommy Bridges lick the Reds in the third game of the series.

But hold on—I know where I am. I'm in South Bend, the home of the thoroughbred football player, to watch Notre Dame's Irish play Georgia Tech's Yellowjackets. I'm in the Oliver hotel, the Oliver, whose rooms and lobby have long rocked to the thunder shaken from the skies.

Down the street a ways Elmer Layden is putting his boys through their last workout, and eight miles away, in Niles, Michigan, Bill Alexander is teaching the boys from the south their last bit of legerdemain.

Tomorrow's game between the Irish and the boys from the corn pone and red-eye gravy belt figures to be one between power and cunning. Notre Dame has the power.

It would have to have, what with Milt Piepul in the backfield. This big fellow from New England is a one man panzer unit once the whistle blows. He busts and belts and bruises and keeps moving forward. Working with him he'll have such pigskin talent as Bob Saggau, Steve Bagarus or Dipply Evans.

Tech has the cunning and the cuteness. Plenty of it. The attack Bill Alexander has worked out is super razzle dazzle, Houdini with a hip-hip.

* * *

No one would be surprised if Tech revealed a play that involved the sawing of a woman in half as the yanking of rabbits from the tailback's pocket. No less an authority than Layden has gone on record that Tech had the most spectacular attack of all the teams operating in the country.

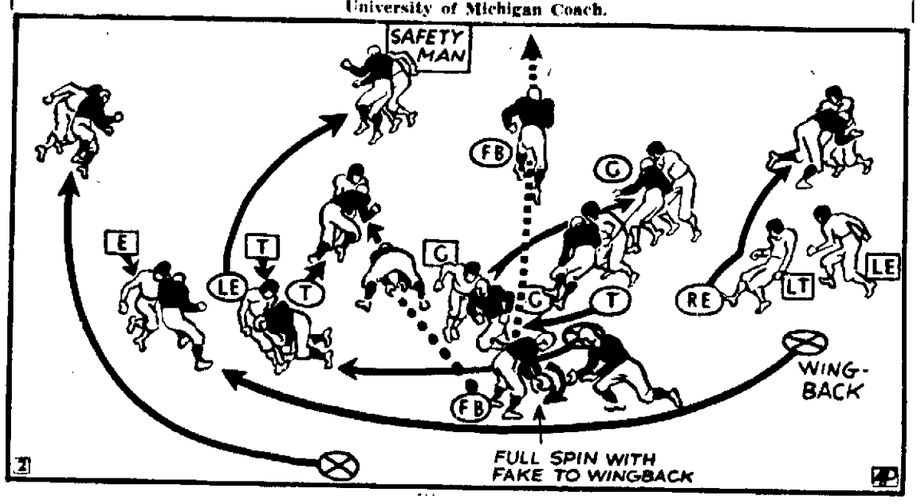
FITZGERALD BEATEN

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — Bill McDowell, 157, Dallas, Texas, outpointed Freddie Fitzgerald, 155, New Brunswich (6).

"I LIKE THIS PLAY"

By H. O. (FRITZ) CRISLER

University of Michigan Coach.



(Second In A Series)

I like this play, a full spin by the fullback with a fake to the wingback, especially when the defensive guards are charging hard. The defensive right guard is permitted to break through and is trapped back of the line by our outside tackle. The blocking back gets the defensive right tackle, also permitted to sift through. The center and two offensive guards take the backers-up. The right offensive end checks the opposing tackle and then heads for the secondary. The left end takes the safety man. By combining deception—provided by the fake to the wingback—with power, the fullback's drive over the inside offensive tackle is extremely difficult to stop.

LAST NIGHT'S BOWLING SCORES

Verne Jones ran off with top honors at the Meder Recreation alleys last night.

Jones, playing with the Jones Outdoor Store club, in the Commercial B league, blasted out a fine 623. He collected his total on games of 169, 240 and 214. Jennings Heiser of the All-State Freights trailed with a 607, and Cy Messmen had an aven 600.

* * *

Four women broke the 500-mark while performing in the Women's league last night.

* * *

Thelma Linster took first place with a 548, while Margaret Baker was second with a 535, Donna Schuster had a 515 and Sophia Meder came in with 513.

Bellville High Turns Back Mt. Gilead In Football Tilt

MT. GILEAD—Bellville high's Bluejays jumped back into the win column here yesterday by marking up a 19 to 6 triumph over the Mt. Gilead high Indians.

* * *

Held scoreless in the opening half, the Bluejays started clicking after the intermission and tallied two touchdowns in the third quarter and added another in the fourth.

Meanwhile, Mt. Gilead, which registered 13 first downs to Bellville's five, finally crossed into pay dirt for a single tally in the final stanza.

A highlight of the game was a spectacular 65-yard run by Greer for a touchdown after he intercepted a desperate Indian pass in the last chapter.

The other Bellville markers were scored by Palm, on a four-yard plunge, and Keiser on a buck from the one-yard stripe.

* * *

The contest was to be played this afternoon, but school officials moved the game up a day because of the Republican rally at the Mt. Gilead fairground today.

ARMSTRONG ENTERS NEW YORK HOSPITAL

NEW YORK — (U.P.) — Former Welterweight Champion Henry Armstrong enters Medical Arts hospital Sunday for an operation to remove cartilage and scar tissue from both brows to prevent easy cuts and swellings in future battles.

PLENTY OF EXPERIENCE

MILWAUKEE —(AP)— Eighty-seven years of football is a lot, but that figure represents the combined grid experience of the Marquette coaching staff. Head Coach Paddy Driscoll and Line Coach Tarzen Taylor both have been active in the game for 27 years, Backfield Coach Red Dunn for 22 and Freshman Coach Marvin Bell for 11 years.

REDS-RED SOX

CINCINNATI—(AP)—For the fifth successive year the Reds will travel north with the Boston Red Sox next spring after leaving their training base at Tampa, Florida.

CAN HIT HOMERS

CINCINNATI—(AP)—Frank McCormick of the Reds and Johnny Mize of the Cardinals both hit at least one home run in each of the National League ball parks in 1940.

ROBINSON STOPS RIVAL

WATERBURY, Conn.—Ernest "Cat" Robinson, 146, Jamaica, N. Y., stopped Francesco Montanari, 147, Italy (4).

STRIKEOUT KING

TUCSON, Ariz. — (AP) — George Burns, Cardinal southpaw, struck out 25 batters in 17 consecutive games in the Arizona-Texas League.

Along about the time football was reinstated at Duke in 1929 (it had been banned by the faculty since 1894) the student editor and other newspapermen were seeking a nickname for the team.

At the time, a famous French regiment band of the World war was touring the country. It was known as the "Blue Devils."

The papers were full of stories about the band of this famous fighting regiment. The student editor called the team by that name and wrote to sports editors of the state papers and got them to do the same.

Thus the Duke team became the "Blue Devils."

SHOULD BE LOUD

MILWAUKEE — (AP)—If worse comes to worse the athletic staff at Marquette could form a musical organization. Football Coach Paddy Driscoll used to play cornet, Trainer Ed Rozmarynoski the drums and Line Coach Tarzen Taylor the piano.

DAYTON—(U.P.)—The Minnesota football team will work out here at the University of Dayton stadium on Oct. 18 before their game the next day with Ohio State at Columbus.

THEATERS

Rise of America.

"The Howards of Virginia" brings to the screen the essence of the spirit which made America a great nation. Through the lives of one family a picture is presented which embodies the passionate desire for individual freedom, happiness and the opportunity to build a new world. Cary Grant, Martha Scott, Alan Marshall, Richard Carlson and Sir Cedric Hardwicke are seen in the film which was made in historical old Williamsburg, Va.

Mountain Folks.

Bob Burns returns to his native mountain after having been gone long enough to learn to wear shoes, and sets about making a radio band out of his family. Una Merkel is the gal he left behind him and much of the action revolves around mountain politics a la shotguns. Jerry Colonna and Don Wilson are in the cast. "Comin' Round the Mountain" heads the Madison bill tomorrow, augmented with "Gay Caballero" with Cesar Romero.

Action In Film.

A parson with ideas and ideals is made chaplain of a notoriously brutal prison in "Men Without Souls," which heads the Park bill today and Saturday. John Litel portrays the chaplain and Barton MacLane is the surly leader of a prison gang. Rochelle Hudson injects romance into the story. Roy Rogers and Mary Hart in "Frontier Pony Express" is the second film.

Hall As a Sailor.

Strapping Jon Hall, who is best known for his portrayal of Tahitians, became an American gob in his latest picture "Sailor's Lady" which the Ritz is offering. A baby smuggled aboard the flagship just as the navy is about to start maneuvers, provides a hilarious theme. A Western, "Blazing Six Guns" rounds out the bill.

Holt at Majestic.

Jack Holt, Marian Marsh and Philip Terry are the principals in a drama of a man convicted on circumstantial evidence. "Fugitive From A Prison Camp" is the top attraction at the Majestic today and tomorrow. Col. Tim McCoy routs a part of the "5th Column" in "Arizona Gang Busters," also on the bill.

WOODEN BRICK

ABERDEEN, Wash.—(U.P.)—Frank J. Wortner, veteran inventor, has built three model houses of wooden bricks 10 inches long with a 2¼-inch face and 1¾-inch thickness. The bricks are locked together by a dovetail strip.

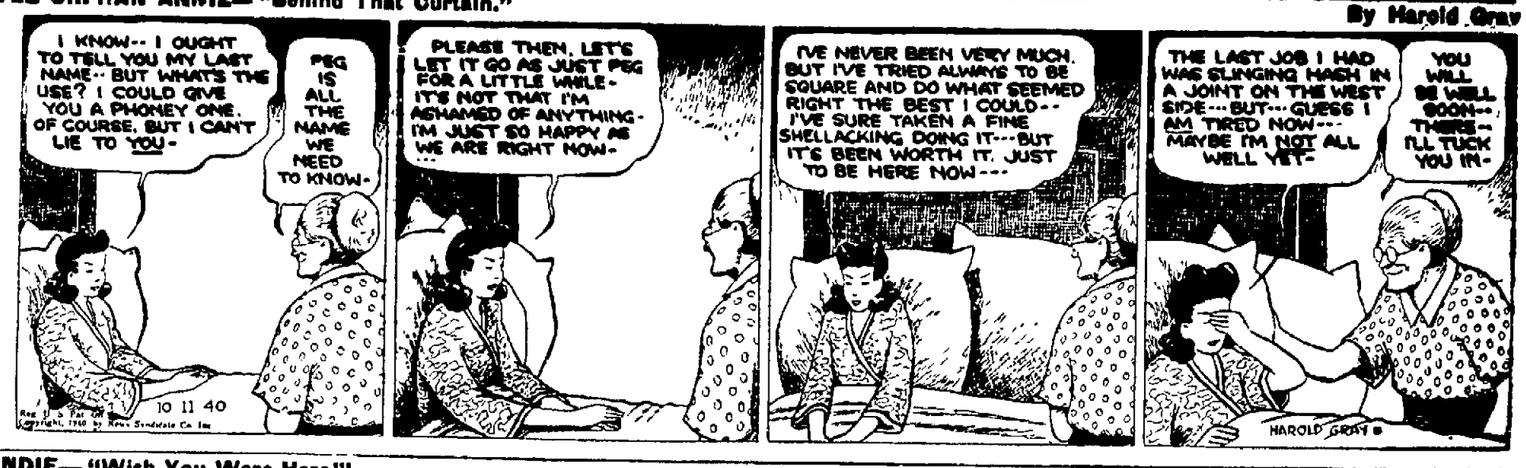
PAM— "Bill!" By A. W. Brewerton

HI, PAM! -THAT WAS BILL! - HOW'D YOU LIKE HIM?
OH, HE'S VERY ATTRACTIVE LOOKING, ANN.
10-11
GUESS YOU THINK IT'S CRAZY, MY PLUGGING FOR A FELLOW LIKE THIS - BUT -WELL, WE'VE BEEN FRIENDS A LONG TIME - NEVER ANY-THING SENTIMENTAL - GUESS I'M TOO HARUM-SCARUM, TOMBOY FOR BILL--
--- WISH HE WOULD FALL FOR A GIRL - NEVER HAS - THIS RAVING OVER YOU IS SOMETHING NEW FOR BILL! I KNOW YOU'RE OVERRUN WITH ADMIRERS - BUT, JUST THE SAME, I THINK YOU'RE MISSING A BET IF YOU DON'T MEET BILL!
WELL - IF SHE'S JUST BEEN TRYING TO AROUSE MY INTEREST AND CURIOSITY, SHE'S CERTAINLY DONE IT - BUT OF COURSE SHE WASN'T JUST DOING THAT!
BUT WE WONDER IF THAT'S NOT JUST WHAT ANN IS DOING -AND WHY?

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE— "Behind That Curtain." By Harold Gray



I KNOW-- I OUGHT TO TELL YOU MY LAST NAME-- BUT WHAT'S THE USE? I COULD GIVE YOU A PHONEY ONE, OF COURSE, BUT I CAN'T LIE TO YOU-
PEG IS ALL THE NAME WE NEED TO KNOW-
10 11 40
PLEASE THEN, LET'S LET IT GO AS JUST PEG FOR A LITTLE WHILE- IT'S NOT THAT I'M ASHAMED OF ANYTHING- I'M JUST SO HAPPY AS WE ARE RIGHT NOW-
I'VE NEVER BEEN VERY MUCH, BUT I'VE TRIED ALWAYS TO BE SQUARE AND DO WHAT SEEMED RIGHT THE BEST I COULD-- I'VE SURE TAKEN A FINE SHELLACKING DOING IT---BUT IT'S BEEN WORTH IT. JUST TO BE HERE NOW---
THE LAST JOB I HAD WAS SLINGING HASH IN A JOINT ON THE WEST SIDE---BUT--- GUESS I AM TIRED NOW--- MAYBE I'M NOT ALL WELL YET-
YOU WILL BE WELL SOON--- THERE-- I'LL TUCK YOU IN-

THE NEBBS— No Vacation. By Sol Hess

EMBERT, IF I DIDN'T HOBBLE OUT HERE TO SEE YOU I SUPPOSE I NEVER WOULD SEE YOU
I'M MIGHTY GLAD TO SEE YOU UP AND ABOUT AGAIN- I WANTED TO COME AND VISIT YOU BUT THOUGHT TOO MUCH COMPANY MIGHT NOT BE GOOD 10-11
FROM REPORTS I NEVER DREAMED THAT YOUD BE UP SO SOON. YOU HAVE GREAT COURAGE AND STAMINA
YES AND IT WAS ONLY THAT NEBB DETERMINATION TO FIGHT THAT KEPT ME ALIVE-- I HAD A FEVER SO HIGH THAT WHEN THEY PUT ICE BAGS ON MY HEAD THEY SIZZLED AND DANCED AROUND LIKE THEY WERE ON A HOT STOVE
MR. NEBB, WE'RE DOING FINE - MAKING MONEY SO FAST THAT IT WON'T BE LONG BEFORE WE BOTH CAN TAKE PERMANENT VACATIONS
NO, I DON'T WANT NO MORE VACATIONS - NOTHING CATCHES UP TO ME WHEN I'M WORKING BUT IT SEEMS THAT EVERYTHING HOPS ON ME WHEN I LOAF

STOCKS HOLD NARROW RANGE IN MART TODAY

Crucible Steel Attracts Support in Trading; Other Issues Edge Forward.

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK — Leading stocks held to an extremely narrow range in today's market.

Attracting support were Crucible Steel common and preferred which got up to 2 to 4 points. Included to edge forward were Chrysler, U. S. Steel, General Electric, Texas Corp., Standard Oil of N. J., American Telephone, U. S. Rubber and Commonwealth Edison.

Bonds and commodities failed to develop definite trends.

Many traders remained in the do-nothing ranks because of the forthcoming lengthy week-end. Markets will be closed tomorrow for Columbus Day.

Encouraging marketwise was the survey of Dun & Bradstreet disclosing retail store activities throughout the country continued to hold at the high level of the previous week with increases over a year ago averaging from 6 to 10 per cent.

The statement of New York City federal reserve member banks for the week ended Wednesday reported a jump of $14,000,000 in commercial, industrial and agricultural loans during the week.

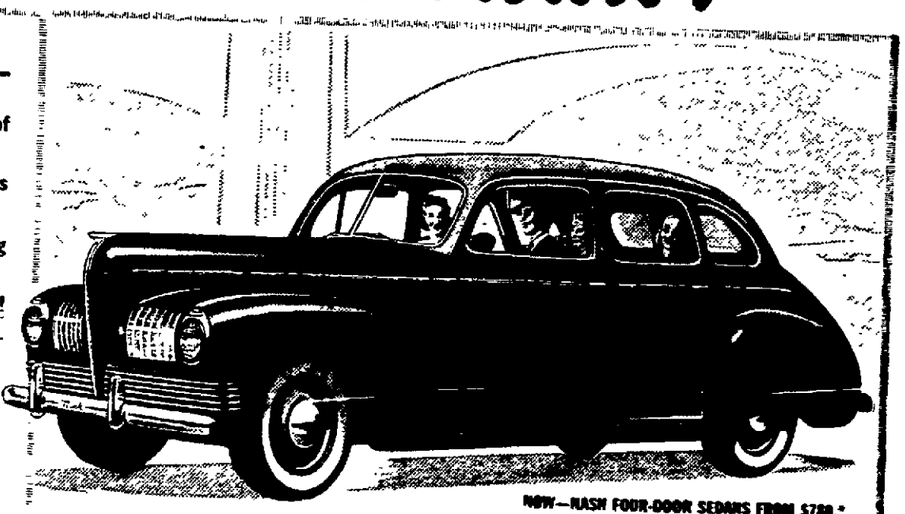
THAT RUMOR ABOUT NASH WAS TRUE!

A New Kind of Car Enters the Low-Price Fields!

For The First Time—
- ★ 25 to 30 Miles per Gallon of Gasoline in a Big Car!
- ★ Roomier than Many 1940 Cars Costing up to $200 More!
- ★ Flashing Pickup of New "Flying Scot" Engine!
- ★ Coil Springs on All Four Wheels!
- ★ New "Unitized" Steel Body—Safer, Quieter!
- ★ Improved Weather Eye Conditioned Air System . . . and Convertible Bed!
- ★ Overall Savings up to $100 a Year!



NOW—NASH FOUR-DOOR SEDANS FROM $780.* DELUXE MODEL ILLUSTRATED, $800.*

Good News! In the Face of Rising New Car Prices—
Nash Announces 1941 Prices $70 to $159 LOWER!

TODAY—there's a new kind of car in the lowest-price field—the 1941 Nash!

It's so new...so different that driving it is a thrilling experience.

Little would you believe, as you look at the size of it—194 inches long—that it delivers 25 to 30 miles to the gallon, with usual good driving.

Powered by Nash's new-type "Flying Scot" Engine, it's the fleetest, smoothest "six" you ever had your hands on!

You'll be delighted by the way it responds to the wheel but laughs at bumps. With Two-way Ball-bearing Steering and soft coil springs on all four wheels—it rides like a miracle in motion.

Its amazing quiet, its unusual roominess are due to a new kind of "unitized" construction. Frame and body are welded together. The front seat's almost five feet wide. The rear has ample space for Nash's big Convertible Bed.

Even the air you breathe is different—thanks to the new conditioned-air wonders of the Weather Eye System.

This year Nash prices are lower. All Nash cars have new economy. See also the big, beautiful new Nash Ambassador Aero-powered Sixes and Eights—at your dealer's. First public showing today!

3 NEW SERIES—17 BEAUTIFUL MODELS

The Nash Ambassador "600" . . . America's new low-price car. 6-cylinder Manifold-Sealed Engine. 194 inches over all. Six models.

ANTI-AIRCRAFT FIRE IMPROVED BY DEFENDERS

Four German Air Raids Turned Back By Sharp Shooting British Gunners.

vious raids, attributing the change to the accuracy of their anti-aircraft gunners, who were reported to have continued their practice of potting Nazi flares as fast as the raiders dropped them.

The press association said the Archies shot down at least two night raiders.

Far fewer bomb explosions were heard during the night, despite a large number of raiders, leading to a belief that many of the missiles released were time bombs which explode only after a few hours or a few days have elapsed, instead of on contact.

British warplanes, meanwhile, flew across the channel in heavy force, the air ministry said, to attack "oil and other military targets and communications in Germany" as well as the "invasion ports" on the German-held French coast, including big gun positions at Calais and Cap Griz Nez.

Radio stations in Berlin, Hamburg, Cologne and other parts of Germany went off the air during the early part of the night, indicating the RAF was striking deep into the reich.

Observers on the Kent coast said the illumination from British bombs crashing on French ports across the narrow channel was the most brilliant yet, the entire coast for miles being silhouetted in the glare.

More than 50 districts of London were hit during the all-night attack, and the great west coast port of Liverpool also was the target of many German raiders.

Meanwhile, Britain's far-ranging bombers slashed again at warships in the German naval base of Wilhelmshaven and the great Krupp shipyards at Kiel last night despite intense anti-aircraft fire, the air ministry announced.

Several sticks of bombs were dropped across the Wilhelmshaven harbor, frequent target of the RAF in recent days, the ministry said.

Continuing their daily smashing of the "invasion ports" along the channel coast, the RAF's bombers thrust far into Germany to bomb several airdromes in Bavaria, the communique reported.

The seaplane base at Norderney, on Germany's North sea coast, shipping in the channel ports of Calais Boulogne, Le Havre and Brest and coastal batteries at Cherbourg also were reported attacked.

Other strong units of British bombers attacked oil targets in Germany, the ministry announced, and reported storage tanks blown up and fires started at half a dozen places including Cologne and Hanover.

During the night there were indications that the RAF had struck deep into the German reich when radio stations at Berlin, Hamburg, Cologne and other points went off the air.

DNB, the official German news agency, reported with unusual frankness that British bombs spread "devastation visible over a radius of five-eights of a mile" and left "a shambles of ashes" in two sections of Hamburg.

Today's "invasion weather": Calm seas in Strait of Dover; skies clear.

Coast Guns Fire On Cruiser

BERLIN—(INS) German coastal long-range guns in the vicinity of the German-held French port of Cherbourg opened fire on a British cruiser today, the Reich war ministry announced.

The British warship which had appeared off Cherbourg immediately fled after the firing began, the announcement said.

Another communique reported that German warplanes had resumed attacks on the British isles this morning, the raids being centered on London, the home counties, and South Wales.

A later official statement said three persons were killed, 15 seriously injured and many slightly hurt when British planes bombed Hamburg during the night.

During the night it was announced, several hundred German bombers attacked "important objectives" in London and other cities.

The British lost ten planes yesterday, it was claimed, while the Germans lost seven.

The announcement added that British planes penetrated northern and central Germany during the night, bombing industrial establishments, docks, railroad stations, destroyed houses and barns and injured several civilians.

Referring to reports that St. Paul's cathedral in London had been struck by a bomb, German spokesmen said that if the cathedral actually was hit it might be explained that important military objectives are in the immediate [illegible]

500 SEE FIRST MINSTREL SHOW

TIRO—A capacity audience of nearly 500 persons jammed Tiro high school auditorium Thursday night to witness the Lazy Moon minstrels which were put on by the Future Farmers of America as part of a two day fair at the school.

The fair will close following a program at 8 p. m. tonight in which Bob French and the Buckeye Four will give an entertainment program. Several hundred farm products and needle work displays are exhibited in the various rooms of the school.

Evacuation Plans Studied

WASHINGTON — (U.P.) — The United States studied plans today for evacuating Americans from the Far East after a series of moves designed to strengthen defenses in the Pacific.

Maritime commission officials revealed that they and state department officials will negotiate with representatives of the United States lines looking toward the possible use of the liners Manhattan, Washington or possibly the America, the largest passenger vessel ever built in this country, for bringing Americans home from Asia.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull said that the question of sending ships would have to await definite information on how many would be returning.

Japs Close Branch Banks In Britain

TOKYO—(U.P.)—Japanese banks and corporations which have branches in Great Britain have been advised by the foreign office to close them, and many Japanese residents in Britain are preparing to leave for home, it was disclosed today.

The reason cited for closing banking and business house branches was that business was already at a standstill.

So far as was known here, it was intended that only one bank should maintain a branch in Britain—the Sumitomoto, which will conduct business for the Japanese treasury.

Japanese subjects in Britain, it was learned are planning to sail for home in the liner Fushimi Maru, the last Japanese steamship remaining in the European run, which leaves Galway, Ireland, for Japan via the Panama canal Oct. 23.

As this news was being disclosed Yakichiro Suma, chief foreign office spokesman, said that American newspaper reports of an impending break in Japanese-American relations were "outrageously unfounded rumors.

"I am very sorry to note the American newspaper trend and the sensational treatment of news relative to the Far East," he said. "Some newspapers, particularly in Washington, are giving the impression that the United States will break relations with Japan within 10 days. These are rumors, outrageous and unfounded.

"The situation, as you can observe, is very quiet here. We are not agitated and we do not believe that the American administration is agitated either. This is the time for responsible people on both sides of the Pacific to be calm and patient."

Devil's Island Convicts Rebel

A virtual rebellion by convicts imprisoned on Devil's Island, French Caribbean sea penal colony, is reported in nearby St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. The convicts, it is said, have declared in favor of Gen. Charles DeGaulle's "Free French" regime and are escaping in droves in an effort to join up with British forces. Pictured above are the Isles du Salut with Devil's Island (Cayenne) in upper right hand corner. Arrow points to it. In lower pictures are some convicts who recently escaped from the island.

Traveler and Author Chosen For Journalism's Hall of Fame Honors.

published 20 volumes of "World Travels."

But, although he never worked on a Mansfield paper, in the newspaper field lies his principal claim to fame.

Born on East Third street, Mansfield, May 8, 1855, son of George Carpenter and a brother of Reid Carpenter, Mr. Carpenter was educated at Wooster college and Ohio State university. He graduated from the latter school in 1877. Two years later, at 24, he went to work for the old Cleveland Leader.

Soon he became legislative correspondent for the Leader at Columbus. His reputation for scooping rivals—if not in priority of stories, then in forceful writing—got him an assignment in Washington.

Ill health, which dogged his entire life, forced him to leave the capital and go to Europe and Egypt. On this trip he began a travel series which interested Sunday newspaper readers for a generation.

He was particularly skillful at re-telling historical tales connected with the places he visited.

Carpenter returned to London from Egypt and got a number of American papers to buy his articles. This number mounted until his work was being syndicated in nearly 40 newspapers.

His wife (Joanna D. Condit) accompanied him on his travels to every nation in the world. In 1891 he wrote from Mexico, in 1892 from Russia, Germany, and England, in 1893 from Japan, China, and Java. In this year he also covered the great famine in Russia. In 1898 he traveled 25,000 miles in South America.

Between travels he lived at Washington and on a farm overlooking the Shenandoah valley. This farm he named in honor of his wife.

Carpenter's daughter, Mrs. Chapin Huntington, now lives in Washington. Two nieces, Mrs. John S. Hattery, 125 Marion avenue, and Mrs. Ernest Hartman, Shelby road, are Mansfield residents. A third niece, Mrs. Amy Carpenter Douglas, lives in Cleveland.

A summary of Carpenter's career is engraved on the tombstone above his grave in Mansfield cemetery. It reads, in part:

To millions of readers and generations of school children, he brought understanding of their fellows in far-away lands."

ny and nickel meter. Motorists may park for 12 minutes by depositing a penny, 24 minutes for two pennies, or up to one hour for five pennies or a nickel. It operates with a small lever.

As soon as the meters are delivered they will be installed, Locke said. They will be placed on both sides of the streets in the area bordered by Mulberry, Fourth and Diamond streets. There will be meters on Fourth and Diamond streets but none on Mulberry or Second.

The Mico contract calls for a purchase price of $49.50 per meter, to be paid on a rental basis of $3.75 a month, and free service for a period of nine months.

Service-Safety Director C. M. Crafton, authorized by council legislation to enter into the contract, was to sign the papers late today.

Installation of parking meters is the city's first step in a movement to remedy the traffic situation. Such action was strongly recommended by a citizens committee on a traffic survey earlier in the year. The revenue from the meters is expected to bring a considerable sum to the police department. In cities the same size as Mansfield, revenue from parking meters has amounted to $22,600 a year.

REDS WORRIED BY NAZI MARCH UPON RUMANIA

Germans Claim Activity In Rumania Defends Oil Fields From Raids.

predicted that Germany was preparing to deal with Turkey from Black Sea bases while Italy attacked Greece.)

Germans here said their activities in the Balkans, including the speeding up of arms shipments to both Rumania and Jugoslavia, were "normal." They said Germany was taking no chances of the British showering bombs on the Rumanian oil fields and trying to smash the "Balkan breadbasket" if and when Britons clear out of Rumania.

The Germans said British quarters were responsible for reports that a German push was imminent, either to Greece by way of Jugoslavia, or to Turkey by way of Rumania and Bulgaria. They said Germany had no desire to disturb the Balkans, on which she would be largely dependent for food and supplies if the war continued all winter.

New Conversations Slated at Moscow

BERLIN — (AP) — The authoritative commentary Dienst Aus Deutschland asserted today that new German-Russian conversations would be held soon at Moscow and took occasion to deny that there was any conflict between Soviet interests and the recent pact of Germany, Italy and Japan.

"So far as territorial problems are concerned it is pointed out in Berlin that the Soviet Union would be able to procure solid political and commercial advantages through new relations to the Reich," the service said.

Dienst Aus Deutschland is considered close to the Berlin foreign office.

Soviet Rejects Olive Branch

LONDON — (INS) — The Soviet Union has turned down a British proposal for Anglo-Russian co-operation, it was learned in authoritative quarters today.

Rejection of the British olive branch was made by Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov during his conference last week with Sir Stafford Cripps British ambassador in Moscow, it was learned.

Molotov was reported to have turned down the co-operation offer on the grounds that harmony on major questions was impossible while discord exists on minor questions such as the recognition of the Soviet acquisition of Baltic states.

Russian officals, it was said, have already informed the United States that in the event of the conclusion of a Russo-Japanese non-aggression pact, the Soviet intends to continue to supply the Chinese government of Chiang Kai Shek with aid.

The foregoing statement of policy was reportedly given to American Ambassador Laurence A. Steinhardt by Molotov himself.

See Nazi-Soviet Break On Balkans

WASHINGTON —(INS)— Germany's push into the Balkans was viewed by informed Washington diplomats today as exposing the third Reich to the grave danger of an outright break with Soviet Russia.

For some time, it is known, relations between Moscow and Berlin have been growing increasingly cool. At least 300,000 Russian troops, it is reported, are on the eastern border of Rumania.

Hence, the situation in what has been called "Europe's cockpit" is considered tense.

The German push into Rumania comes at a time when Great Britain and the United States are trying by behind-the-scenes diplomacy to bring Moscow into close accord with the "democratic bloc." At the same time, Japan is trying to salve over its decade-old quarrel with the Soviet state and to insure, at least, its benevolent neutrality in the event of trouble with the United States and Britain in the Far East.

In view of this situation, some Washington diplomats express surprise that Germany, as a member of the newly-formed German-Italian-Japanese "Axis" should take any action likely to alienate Soviet Russia, which long has regarded the Black sea shores as a vital sphere of influence.

work, since the heaviest registration is expected between 5 and 9 p. m. Wednesday. Workers at the registration booths will receive no pay. Registration will begin at 7 a. m. and close at 9 p. m.

Balliet said registration cards and booklets of instruction for registrars will be distributed Monday night at a "school" conducted by the election board at the courthouse. Members of the board will explain the procedure to be followed in registering more than 10,000 men from 21 to 35 in the county.

Meanwhile, draft officials at Washington today advised men within the draft age limit to be near a registration place Wednesday. The warning was for persons who plan vacation trips that might take them to isolated regions.

Maj. Edward S. Shattuck, chief of the legal division of the selective service headquarters, said that although liberal plans have been made for registration anywhere, they would not excuse persons from registering whether they are on a transcontinental train or a canoe trip in the north woods.

"They should make some provision to be near a registration place on October 16," he said. "When they return they will have to register and the local board at that time will inquire whether their failure to register was wilful or not. In wilfull neglect they may be penalized.

"However, if a person is compelled to make a rapid trip for an urgent purpose—such as visiting the sickbed of a dying relative—the local board might overlook late registration. In any event, the registrant should register immediately on arriving at his first prolonged stop."

capita and the internal revenue collections were less than one-tenth of that. In Mississippi, per capita expenditures of the New Deal were $41, and internal revenue tax collections were only $3.

"And that is one reason why your factories up here in New England are idle while new factories that compete with you are being built in Mississippi, Arkansas and Alabama.

Reiterating a statement he made in Providence, Willkie said that "the New Deal does not believe in production." Last night he told his audience, estimated by police at 28,000, that administration officials believe many Americans will never find jobs.

"If the men who preach this doctrine are given the third term they seek," he added, "they may yet succeed in making that theory come true. Then with no one else to work for, the state would be our only master, and the permanent unemployed would be in concentration camps. When you vote in November, make your vote mean that it can't happen here."

Petty Thievery Spree Winds Up With Jail Term

Tom Virgets, a transient, went on a spree of petty thievery yesterday while "under the influence" and as a result will spend considerable time in the county jail.

Virgets was arrested yesterday after Merle Pecht of the Martin Hardware company reported that someone had stolen a small radio, valued at $12.85, off of their truck while it was parked on North Walnut.

A driver of a taxi company on the same street told police that he had purchased a radio for $2 from a man who was intoxicated and who had a pocket full of fountain pens. When police found Virgets he also had in his possession a tape line valued at $8.95. It was later identified as having been stolen from the Cairns Hardware company.

Virgets pleaded guilty in municipal court this morning to a charge of petty theft, filed against him by the Martin Hardware company. He was fined $50 and costs and was sentenced to 30 days in county jail.

2 NEW DEFENSE CLASSES START AT HIGH SCHOOL

4 Additional Instructors on Job as Hours Are Lengthened For Courses.

Addition of two more national defense classes to the six already in progress at Mansfield Senior high school was announced today by V. H. Oberlander, head of the Mansfield national defense program.

The two new classes are supplementary machine shop practice, which begins Monday, and preemployment automobile mechanics, which will begin on the following Monday.

Oberlander also revealed today that, in addition to the regular members of the vocational education staff, four additional instructors have been teaching at the defense school.

The additional instructors are R. D. Schaaf, who teaches electrical shop work; James Herlihy, machine shop; Albert Naus, welding; and William Blank, welding.

When the eight classes all get underway, Oberlander said that enrollment in the national defense classes would reach the 175 mark. At present there are more than 100 enrolled in the school.

Classes at the high school begin at 6 p. m. and last until 4 a. m. With the two additional classes, the vocational department at the high school will be open from 6 p. m. until 6 a. m., Oberlander said.

On Monday, Oberlander will go to Columbus to attend a National Defense meeting called by the W. P. A. The purpose of the meeting, according to Oberlander, will be to find a means to get a better class of students in the Defense vocational program.

Ohio was one of 11 states selected by the government to carry on the defense program because of the excellence of the program as it is set up in the state, Oberlander stated.

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

MANSFIELD, OHIO, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1940

Sometimes it may be "ignorance of the law"—but ordinarily it is just ignorance.

After completion to Mulberry street, the West Fourth street improvement is proceeding toward Bowman with typical WPA deliberateness.

Nazi soldiers in invaded countries have been instructed to be kind to horses which do not understand commands given in German—but such gentleness does not extend to women and children.

Inspecting Ohio Defenses

OHIO is privileged today and tomorrow to have as its guest Franklin D. Roosevelt, president of the United States, who has been devoting considerable time in recent weeks to inspecting national defenses in a number of states.

At Youngstown this afternoon for inspection of steel industries engaged in the manufacture of munitions, President Roosevelt will proceed through Ravenna to look at the 21,000-acre site of a proposed army shell-loading plant and will also make a stop at Akron while enroute to Columbus, where he will visit Fort Hayes tomorrow morning before leaving for Dayton where he is scheduled for a major address tomorrow night.

In view of the imminence of election it has been rather difficult to disassociate this defense inspection trip of President Roosevelt from the political aspects which such a tour of a "doubtful" state might be assumed to have.

There has been assurance from President Roosevelt, as commander in chief of United States military forces, however, that this trip is entirely disattached from his third term candidacy for the presidency. It appears, therefore, that any resemblance to a campaign tour, with back platform appearances, is purely coincidental.

But, after all, whether Mr. Roosevelt is in Ohio to inspect defenses or to promote the third-term candidacy which he claims to have regretfully accepted, the people of this state are always glad to welcome a visit from the president of the United States—with assurance of respectful and courteous treatment from those who oppose his re-election as well from those who favor it. Persons who are opposed to the re-election of President Roosevelt do not throw bricks, vegetables, or other missiles—nor do they permit their children to do so.

Night Parking Without Lights

CITY COUNCIL'S selection of a few of Mansfield's narrow residence streets on which to establish one-side parking restrictions, so as to eliminate one-way middle lanes, is a step in the right direction.

Council has promised to follow this action by designating a number of other narrow streets on which parking will be permitted on only one side.

Much of the effectiveness of this restriction will depend on immediate police enforcement, so that motorists understand that this is not merely another of the traffic regulations which police ignore—as is now being done with the ordinance that requires a red light to be shown at the rear of cars that are left standing on the street after dark. All-night street parking without lights has again become common practice on many residence streets without apparent police effort to discourage this dangerous practice.

The section of the ordinance covering this subject reads: "No person shall leave a vehicle standing upon a street or thoroughfare in the city of Mansfield, during the period from one-half hour after sunset to one-half hour before sunrise, without leaving a red light burning, which shall be visible in rear of at least 200 feet, except in the White Way district while all White Way lights are burning."

Golden Jubilee of D. A. R.

REACHING the fiftieth anniversary of its founding, Mansfield chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution are today joining in national observance of the occasion.

During the half century in which this organization has grown from an initial group of 18 women to a membership approaching 150,000, the D. A. R., as it is alphabetically designated, has followed a consistant course of patriotic Americanism, designed, as is stated in its first object, "to perpetuate the memory and spirit of the men and women who achieved American independence."

Other objects of the organization are: "To carry out the injunction of Washington in his farewell address, 'to promote, as an object of primary importance, institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge.'

"To cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, to foster true patriotism and love of country, and to aid in securing for mankind all the blessings of liberty."

Activities of the D. A. R. have been along widely varied lines, all centering around the theme of loyal Americanism, with special emphasis on educating foreign-born men and women for citizenship, encouraging a spread of educational facilities to underprivileged children and adults in backward states, and combatting subversive influences wherever found.

Sometimes misinterpreted, but now noteworthy, is the fact that throughout its history the D. A. R. has maintained a consistent policy of encouraging national defense adequate to current needs, as the best assurance of peace for the United States.

Essay contests on patriotic subjects, distribution of copies of citizenship manuals in many languages, reprints of the Constitution, and booklets showing proper use of the American flag are other phases of D. A. R. work in spreading the doctrine of Americanism.

While membership in the D. A. R. is restricted to women who are direct descendents of Revolutionary war ancestors, it is gratifying to realize the extent to which the organization has been able to carry instruction and inspiration in patriotic Americanism to millions outside its membership.

Speaking of sloppy speech, there's one word especially which every American should pronounce correctly. It is "American," which is not really "Amurrican" or "Amurcan," or "Amercan."

You must read some headlines for yourself, instead of hearing them read aloud, as, for instance: "Boy Found In Store Returns Money and Flees."

Americanism First!

—By ELSIE ROBINSON

I'M NOT a Catholic. I hold no particular brief for any code or creed. But I'm doffing my new fall bonnet today in enthusiastic approval of—and warm respect to—the University of San Francisco, whose Jesuit educators have made one of the most outstanding patriotic gestures in our current confusion.

Time was when credits were the main consideration in entering any college. How do you rate in Math, in English, History, Languages? But now there's a new challenge, as presented by the U. S. F.—

HOW DO YOU RATE IN AMERICANISM?

No student, Catholic or Protestant, however high his previous record, may enter the University of San Francisco today without knowing the fundamental principles of Americanism . . . vowing allegiance if he is a native born . . . or acknowledging their status if he is an alien.

And, however humiliating it may be to admit this fact, no other college or university has made such a ruling hitherto. All American schools which takes no chances, which demands that every native born shall take the full oath of allegiance to his land, and that every alien, though he may not take the oath, shall understand and respect its principles. Failing which, native son or foreign born, have no further place on the campus.

I repeat, I am not a Catholic, nor am I advocating any special cause or creed. But I do believe that the University of San Francisco has set an example and established a credo which every school in America might well follow. Here is that statement, the most significant in American education today, I honestly believe!

The University of San Francisco refuses to subscribe to the doctrine that "academic freedom" may be used as a pretext to teach systems which destroy all freedom. It proudly boasts that it has always taught and always will teach the following creed:

It believes in God.

It believes in the personal dignity of man.

It believes that man has certain natural rights which come from God and not from the State.

It therefore is opposed to all forms of dictatorship holding the philosophy that the "total man" (totalitarianism) belongs to the state.

It believes in the sanctity of the home, the basic unit of civilization.

It believes in the natural right of private property, but likewise that private property has its social obligations.

It believes that Labor has not only rights but obligations.

It believes that Capital has not only rights but obligations.

It is vigorously opposed to all forms of "racism," persecution or intolerance because of race.

It believes that liberty is a sacred thing, but that law, which regulates liberty, is a sacred obligation.

It believes in inculcating all the essential liberties of American Democracy and takes open and frank issue with all brands of spurious "democracy."

It believes, briefly, in the teachings of Christ, who held that morality must regulate the personal, family, economic, political and international life of men if civilization is to endure.

THERE is the University of San Francisco's particular and unique "Bill of Rights" . . . political, racial, economic and spiritual rights which every native son must swear to and every alien understand before he can be enrolled. And I doubt if a nobler code ever appeared in our educational field. Nor has there ever been a time when such a statement of faith was more drastically needed.

IT IS NO LONGER ENOUGH TO BELIEVE IN AMERICA WITH OUR MINDS, AS A POLITICAL SCHEME WE MUST BELIEVE IN IT AND SERVE IT WITH OUR HEARTS AND OUR SOULS, AS A DIVINE REVELATION, OR WE ARE LOST.

Looking Back

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Monday, Oct. 11, 1920.

Cleveland won fourth game from Brooklyn, 1-0, needing only one more victory to clinch world series.

Rev. E. M. McMillin went to Greenfield to attend Ohio synod meeting.

Son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Lautsbaugh, West Fourth street.

Charles Hancock, high school football player, was injured by having needle run in his foot.

Mrs. Adam Schuff, 24, died.

Miss Bertha Houston and Walter A. Turner were married at First Presbyterian church.

Birth report: Son to Mr. and Mrs. James Fisher, 132 Grace street.

Springmill road to Shelby was re-opened after completion of improvement.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

Friday, Oct. 11, 1935.

"Sam" E. Vining joined the ranks of Mansfield authors when his book, "Sam's Selling Slants," was published.

A. E. Courtney, William Somers, jr., Fred Bruter, John Massa, jr., and John Beitka attended annual convention of Ohio Building association league in Columbus.

Twenty-eight choir singers of Willard were quarantined because one was taken ill with scarlet fever.

Russell Leedy of Mt. Vernon succeeded George W. Harwood as Richland county relief director.

Chamber of Commerce added 30 new members to its roster.

TODAY IN HISTORY

The first steam ferry in the world, established by John Stevens, the inventor, was opened between New York and Hoboken, N. J., on Oct. 11, 1811.

Timely Editorial

"Official Business."

Travel costs for federal officials offer some interesting speculation. Testimony of the house of representatives shows that Howard Hunter, the new deal's number two man of the WPA, found it convenient to travel to Louisville just at the time that the Kentucky Derby was being held in 1936, 1937, 1938 and 1939.

"Official business" also took Mr. Hunter to New Orleans when the famous Sugar Bowl classic was being held in these same four years; and February, 1940, found him in Miami the day of the famous horse race known as the Flamingo stakes.

Mr. Hunter's traveling expenses on all these occasions came from WPA money, American taxpayers' money, allegedly appropriated to "feed the hungry and clothe the naked."—Commentator Magazine.

This Is Ohio

Only one other state, Wisconsin, outranks Ohio in the manufacture of Swiss cheese. More than 5,000,000 pounds was produced in 1938, the last complete report.

Swiss cheese making in Ohio has always been on a small factory basis. The report of the Ohio Dairymen's association for 1914 recorded 97 cheese factories, including both swiss and American. The survey of 1931 showed a decline to 27 factories, concentrated in Holmes, Tuscarawas, Wayne, and Coshocton counties. The trend at that time, however, was toward an increase.

It takes on an average of 10 pounds of milk to make one pound of cheese, while it takes 21 pounds of milk to make one pound of butter.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Firm Opposition to Hoover Plan; German Civilians Looting France

—By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON—A furious behind-the-scenes struggle preceded the publication of that joint statement by fifteen outstanding citizens assailing Herbert Hoover's plan to feed Nazi-conquered Europe. The ex-president made a terrific effort to squelch it.

The statement was initiated by Dr. Henry Sloane Coffin, president of Union Theological seminary, to counter Hoover's efforts to line up influential clergymen for his scheme—a scheme which he is pushing without the approval of either the U. S. or British governments.

The statement was distributed in advance for publication in Sunday morning papers, and Hoover, in some way, got wind of it. Whereupon he literally moved heaven and earth to stop it.

He first bombarded the fifteen signers by telephone and telegram to get them to withdraw their names. When this failed, he contacted several newspapers and press associations with protests against the declaration.

One New York morning paper called up Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, a signer, and said they had been informed her name was unauthorized. Mrs. Catt indignantly denied this.

Dr. James B. Conant, president of Harvard University, received a similar inquiry, which he repudiated. In one way or another everyone of the fifteen signers had his name challenged and all stood firm. Dr. Coffin was so aroused by these tactics that he sent Hoover a sizzling letter which concluded as follows:

"While you say in your telegram that your proposal is 'conditional upon such safeguards as would be no injury to the British cause,' I happen to know from the highest sources that this apparently is not the way in which the British government views this. Inasmuch as Britain is in my judgment fighting our battles, I think we owe it to them not to do anything to embarrass them."

Note—Hoover's plan is to set up U. S. corporations to buy food with the funds of the conquered countries on deposit here, and transport the supplies in American ships. American experts estimate that there is ample food in Europe to feed everybody this winter, providing it is equitably distributed by the Nazis—who, however, have requisitioned everything they could lay their hands on and shipped it to Germany.

German Occupation.

INTELLIGENCE reports from Europe indicate that it is not the German army but German civilians in France who are causing trouble. These reports state that the Nazis already have begun to create their vaunted unification of Europe and their reduction of France to a mere agricultural state.

Following the conquering Nazi armies, there came German civilians in numbers almost as great. They settled down in evacuated French homes and began to operate abandoned French shops and factories—and to take over others which had not been abandoned. All this in the vital industrial area of north France.

Reports about the conduct of Germans in France make a sharp distinction between the German military and civilian elements. Little complaint was heard of the conduct of the German military, but when the Gestapo and the Brown Shirts followed, together with civilian groups for the management of industry, real friction developed.

British victory over Germany would require not only success in staving off invasion but also driving the Germans out of the Low Countries and France—and this means not only the German soldiers, but the hordes of civilians who have taken over management of French industry as if it were their own.

Capital Chaff.

JUDGE WALTON MOORE, courtly, 81-year-old counselor of the state department, soon will retire to his palatial estate in nearby Virginia. Selected because he was a close friend of Cordell Hull in the house of representatives, his place probably will not be filled. . . Kindly Chilean Ambassador Cabero soon will resign. He has not been a great success in Washington. . . Super-sleuth J. Edgar Hoover, who has solved many a thorny crime problem, is a collector of cactus plants. Several of them decorate his office, also his home. . . . Pressure by the state department has caused the National Defense Commission to order a supply of diamonds from Brazil. This will be part of the "stock pile" of emergency materials to be accumulated in this country in case of war, since diamonds are essential for drills and machine tools. The Defense Commission wanted to buy them from South Africa, but the state department intervened in favor of a Pan-American neighbor. . . . Congressman Jack Dempsey, defeated in the race to become senator from New Mexico, is angling for the job of WPA administrator or U. S. Housing administrator, replacing Nathan Straus, who never could get along on Capitol Hill.

Involuntary Rehearsal.

DEFENSE Commissioner William Knudsen is extremely busy, but he made a speech the other night to a one-man audience.

Scheduled to address the Conference Board, a New York organization of business men, Knudsen was so pressed for time in the Capital that he was unable to get away to Manhattan. Hurriedly it was arranged for him to make the talk by long distance phone and loudspeaker.

At the appointed time, Knudsen was plugged in and from his desk he read his fifteen-minute speech. When he finished he hung up and resumed work. But a moment later his secretary burst in all excited.

"There's been a terrible mix-up somewhere," he cried. "They just called me from New York and wondered what had happened to your speech. It didn't come over the loud speaker."

"Well," laughed Knudsen, "I know I delivered it. The telephone operator can testify to that."

"Yes, I checked with the operator. You made the speech all right but the man at the other end somehow didn't plug it in to the loud speaker. He was the only one who heard the talk. They want to know if you will make it over again."

"Sure," said Knudsen, "the other time was a good rehearsal. I'll do a lot better. Fix up the connection."

French Fleet.

U. S. naval observers abroad have picked up some worrisome reports of German plans to take over the French fleet and use it in conjunction with the Italian and Nazi fleets against the British.

The French still have some powerful cruisers, most of them stationed at the key naval base of Dakar on the bulge of West Africa.

So far, almost nothing has been heard of the Italian fleet, and its chief activity seems to be dodging the British fleet in the Mediterranean. However, should the remainder of the French fleet be added to the Italian and German navies, the British would face a serious menace.

This combined fleet might also be disastrous for South America and the Monroe Doctrine. The Germans plan to use Dakar, according to intelligence reports, first to disrupt British shipping to India, Australia and New Zealand which now must pass around the Cape of Good Hope; second as a hopping-off place to South America—if and when their European troubles are over.

Man About Manhattan

—By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Sometimes at night, when the mood for the old familiar haunts is lacking, I forget about Broadway and amble over into Jersey for a visit with my friend Ferde Grofe.

Such instances are delightful, for life in the Grofe household is paced by the same appreciation for abundance that is expressed in his suites to the Grand Canyon and the Mississippi. Quantity, the out of doors, a sense of the immensity of nature is reflected in most of Ferde's musical compositions. And so it is with his home.

I mean, well, around midnight when Mrs. Grofe suddenly says, "How would some porkchops and hot biscuits sound to you?" she doesn't mean that she happens to have a few chops already prepared and stored away in the icebox. You go back into the kitchen and she takes down a whole half hog, and you slice your own chops, and then you stand around in the kitchen and talk while she cooks them.

It's this abundance of things, this aura of ample plenty that permeates the atmosphere and laves you gently in a wave of cordiality. The porkchops merely express a point. If you prefer lamb, there is also half a lamb hanging from its hook in the refrigerator.

FERDE is looking up now. He is feeling better. Perhaps it was a winter spent in California, and a successful summer at the Fair, that is responsible. It may even be his new composition, "Tempied Hills", which again express his deep longing for the western countryside.

Sometimes, in his study or on the air when I listen to his music, particularly to the movements from Grand Canyon, such as "On the Trail," I have to close my eyes and wonder about Ferde Grofe. I wonder what he must have been like as a youngster when he was getting his musical start by banging pianos in the Barbary Coast dives. . . . Or when he was Paul Whiteman's arranger, giving Whiteman many of the arrangements that made him great and which now remain models of instrumental phraseology.

Today Ferde, is short, thick-shouldered, serious-minded. Sometimes he worries a lot—often without reason. His home is a sort of mirror that reflects his career, for in the basement are radios, phonographs, and recording devices. In the drawing room are novachords and organs. In his study upstairs, where all of his composing is done, is a piano and more radios and phonographs. This room is a well of manuscripts, old and new, some published and handsomely bound, some half-finished, dated down in pencil, scattered about the top of the piano.

YOU say, "Well, what sort of fellow is this Grofe?" and the answer surprises you. . . . He isn't any different from anybody else.

"Well," you argue, "what has he done besides compose a little music? The woods are full of composers of a sort."

The difference is this. Before he came along, jazz music was simply an indefinable influence of uncertain proportions. He was the first to sense in it certain fundamentally sound elements in harmony with the established principles of standard music and he was the first to reduce this to written form.

A Farmer's Diary

'Chippie' on Guard

—By CALVIN A. BYERS

CITY hunters come early, these lovely autumn mornings, to take the wary gray and red squirrels. I saw one enter the border of our woods, wearing high-laced boots and a brown hunting suit and cap. He carried a well oiled gun beneath his arm.

I was not concerned too much, for his coming had been heralded loudly by voices of many wild folk. I saw him step cautiously to the base of a shagbark tree that bore nuts, look up into its top and eye the trunk carefully for evidence of a cavity. Then he drew back into some hazel bushes and sat down to watch. He was there when I drove away to town. When I returned, two hours later, I saw the steel barrel of his gun glisten from the same position.

Nuts dropped from the tree and opened as they fell, but no squirrels moved to get the fragrant feast, and I wondered why. I observed that the woods no longer rang with the harsh voice of the sentinel jay, or the keen-eyed crow. Out of curiosity I walked up toward where the patient nimrod was concealed. It was then I heard at some distance, the quick sharp chatter of a chipmunk. He was not quiet for a single moment.

After looking through the maze of underbrush for some time, I sighted him on the far edge of a hollow stump, not upon his haunches with his tail frisked up along his back, but lying flat on his belly. His sides moved in and out as he barked rapidly with open mouth. Carefully I saw him climb just high enough to make sure the hunter was still there, then he noised the message, louder than before.

A long time passed. Nuts dropped rhythmically, but no animal came near. The gun barrel changed position and I was near enough to hear the huntsman moan. To lose a present for squirrels like the ground beneath that hickory tree and see no sign of life was wearing on the patience. He had been there three hours.

When I came near, he stepped from his hiding place and greeted me. "Why are there no squirrels about this year?" he said. "I got two under this tree a year ago, but there are none around now. Do you know why?"

I nodded, smiling. "Yes, I think I do. Stand still and listen."

But his ears were so accustomed to the chippie's bark that he did not notice it at first. Then, like one coming from a trance, he realized what made that sound. "Why," he exclaimed, "I heard that all the time I sat here and thought nothing about it."

"Yet he's the reason you have no luck," I said. "No animal will venture out of hiding so long as he is yelling 'Enemy!'"

"I suspect, if that's the case, the little brat'll follow me. I might as well move on to another woods."

Knudsen Reports 'Some Progress' Made on Rearmament

ORDERS REACH EIGHT BILLION DOLLAR TOTAL

Additional Four Billion In Contracts Scheduled By End of November.

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON — William S. Knudsen, the defense commission production chief who is sparing of superlatives, reports to the nation that "some progress" has been made in its rearmament program.

Saying that inspection tours of defense industries had "reassured me a great deal," and that he expected "no specific difficulties to interfere" with the program, Knudsen last night mentioned the following evidence of "some progress."

A total of $8,000,000,000 in contracts signed;

Plans for placing an additional $4,000,000,000 in orders by the end of November;

Aircraft production of 950 planes and 1,600 engines monthly, with double that output expected next year "perhaps."

Knudsen paid tribute to the "marvelous response from the people in all walks and stations of life," particularly workers and engineers, and said that "with this spirit x x x we cannot fail to get the results which we in times past have always found possible."

He reported the defense commission had received "excellent help both from congress and the White House to get the necessary legislation passed to fit the emergency."

The war department meanwhile took steps to accelerate airplane production, instructing manufacturers to put their plants on a 24-hour basis wherever possible.

ICC Says Engineer of 'Doodlebug' May Have Been Gassed

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The interstate commerce commission reported today a finding that the railroad engineer whose failure to obey an operating order resulted in a head-on collision fatal to 43 persons July 31 near Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, might have been a victim of carbon monoxide poisoning.

The accident involved a gasoline-electric coach and a freight train of the Pennsylvania railroad.

The ICC said that from its investigation "it is apparent that the engineman was not in full possession of his normal mental faculties while his train was traversing a distance of approximately four miles approaching the point of accident.

The symptoms described and the mental and physical reactions of the engineman just prior to the time of the accident point toward the possibility that he may have been a victim of carbon monoxide poisoning. Research reports state that obese persons are particularly susceptible to carbon monoxide poisoning. (Engineman Thomas L. Murtough was 5 feet, 8 inches tall and weighed 195 pounds.)"

ASK FOR TRIAL

Numbers Racket Suspects Seek Hearing By Jury.

Three Mansfield men who were arrested last month when an alleged numbers racket headquarters was raided, today asked for a trial by jury.

They were Conrad DiSanze, Nick Poulos and Mike Xeros, who were taken in a police raid at 202-204 North Main street on Sept. 25. At that time they appeared in municipal court, pleaded innocent and asked for continuance until today. They were released on $500 bonds.

Today their attorney, James V. Will, appeared in Municipal court and asked that the case be heard by jury trial. No date was set for the trial and bond was continued.

Y.M.C.A. MEMBER CAMPAIGN WILL BE LAUNCHED OCT. 18

The annual membership drive of the Y. W. C. A. will open Oct. 18 and close Oct. 25, it was announced today by Miss Lucy Wakeland, general secretary.

Launching the drive will be a "coffee" at 10:30 a. m. at the Y. W. building, which will be for the membership campaign committee and all workers in the drive.

Approximately 50 workers will canvass the town during the week re-enlisting old members and securing new. The present adult membership of the Y. W. is about 700 and workers hope to top that figure this year.

The Y. W., which is one of the agencies supported by the Community Fund, does not have a fund drive of its own, but does renew memberships once a year, according to Miss Wakeland.

The drive will close on Oct. 25 with an "open house" for all new and old members. Mrs. Philip Corey and her hospitality committee will be in charge of it.

The campaign committee, made up of Mrs. W. E. Wygant and Mrs. R. D. Iden, co-chairmen; Mrs. Harold Burns, Mrs. Marshall Moore, Mrs. Burr Hathaway, Mrs. H. Boyd and Mrs. E. S. Wendell, will have charge of the opening affair on the 18th.

PARKING FINE AGAINST NAZI CONSUL CREATES 'INCIDENT'

NEWTON, Mass.—(INS)—All the might of Germany's third reich can't convince Registrar of Motor Vehicles Frank A. Goodwin that he can't levy a parking fine against a German consul.

And that's the reason Newton has an international incident on its hands today. It all started when the wife of Dr. Herbert W. Scholz, German consul to Boston, parked her car too near the corner of Newton Centre.

The car was tagged but Dr. Scholz did not appear in district court to answer the charge. There followed a bit of diplomatic wrangling during the course of which the counsel's assistant called on Goodwin armed with Article XVII of the German-American treaty of friendship—concerning diplomatic immunity.

The assistant charged that Goodwin climaxed an exchange of official views with the remark that an American diplomat would probably be put in a concentration camp in Germany for a similar offense.

After that the registrar ruled the consul's car off the Massachusetts highways. Commenting on the situation as of today, Goodwin said:

"The law is good enough for Americans and it's good enough for the German consul. When he gets back in the good graces of the court, I'll automatically give him back the right to operate his car.

Said Consul Scholz:

"My wife parked my car, apparently too close to the corner of a street. I did not know it. I did not receive any police notice to report to the court. When I received the summons I wrote to the court. That is not ignoring them. They did not answer me."

PROFESSIONAL WOMEN CONDUCT DISTRICT MEET

Shelby, Bucyrus, Ashland and Mansfield Represented at Galion Session.

GALION—An Inter-City meeting Thursday night marked the observance of National Business Woman's Week by the Galion Business and Professional Women's club. This was a dinner meeting at the First Lutheran church when 70 members and guests were present, bringing together members of BPW clubs of Shelby, Bucyrus, Ashland, Mansfield and Galion. They were greeted by the Galion president, Virginia Ireland.

Theme of the evening was "Business Women in a Democracy — Vote." Two guest speakers featured the program which was held in the Sunday school auditorium and to which the public had been invited. Mrs. Catherine Neff Cox of North Canton presented the Republican platform, while the Democratic platform was outlined by Mrs. Luetta Magruder of Columbus, formerly with the public welfare department.

Between the talks, an octette composed of members of the Galion club, with Dorothy Plack at the piano, sang a patriotic number. The program closed with the group singing "God Bless America."

When the dinner was served tables were colorful with red, white and blue appointments, and were centered with a large toy elephant, and a donkey. During the dinner group singing was led by Helen Britton.

A short business session preceded the program, and during the evening Miss Ireland introduced the presidents of the visiting clubs.

Arrangements for the meeting were in charge of two committees: the publicity, which is headed by Martha Albrecht, and the membership, of which Mrs. Clara Redmon is chairman.

BALLOTS ARRIVE FOR VOTERS OUT OF COUNTY ELECTION DAY

Ballots were available today at the Richland county board of elections headquarters for absentee voting.

Qualified voters in the city and county who will be more than 50 miles from home election day may vote now by the absentee method at the election board office in the courthouse.

Walter Underwood, deputy clerk of the board, said approximately 70 persons have applied for the ballots and a few had voted today.

College students who will not be at home election day can obtain absentee ballots after Oct. 16, while disabled voters must wait until Oct. 21 to cast their ballots. Applications for all three classifications of ballots, however, are being received now.

Applicants for disabled voters' ballots must submit certificates from physicians giving the facts relative to the illness or disability that prevents the applicant from going to the polls to vote.

The absentee, students', and disabled voters' ballots will be received by the board of elections until Oct. 31.

CHAPTER IX.

She reached the Fordyce mansion a few days after Christmas, Philip had told her that she would be the first member of the newly assembled family to get there, for his mother would not arrive for several days; he himself would be in New York, and Norma would probably not return until he did.

The house was enormous, old-fashioned, delightfully warm, comfortable. Jocelyn, upon her arrival, could only guess at the uses of the big rooms behind closed doors on the first floor. The place was ramified into a dozen annexes and bays. Every few years in the past seventy someone had seen fit to add a billiard room or music room or cut through walls to enlarge and supplement parlors, and dens and libraries.

She was escorted by a silent, courteous butler upstairs, across a wide, large upper hall faced with many dark, handsome doors through a passage, and into a suite of two rooms—both hers, and supplemented by a bath, a dressing room and a porch with fluted railings. Her trunk was nowhere in sight, a nice little maid came in to explain that she had unpacked it, and hoped everything would be all right. Reassured, she departed, to appear in a few minutes with a perfectly appointed tea tray. Jocelyn laughed aloud in sheer excitement. This couldn't last; it was much, too much, fun to last. But while it did, it was going to be interesting.

She went downstairs at seven to dinner, when Lena appeared to announce it, and enjoyed an evening paper with her solitary meal. It was served in the smallest of several dining rooms, but even this room was darkly furnished with heavy shining pieces of mahogany, masses of silver glittered behind glass doors and on the sideboard. Soup, a squab, a lettuce salad with various mysterious little embellishments making it delicious, a chocolate eclair with pink and green tiny candies strewn on it, she found it an epicurean meal. It was different from meals at Mrs Buck's, and different from meals at Aunt Nell's. Jocelyn, all alone in the elegant space and dignity of the old Fordyce house, smiled inwardly as she contrasted the three. She loved it already; loved the mansion itself, the stately gardens she had only glimpsed on her arrival, the quiet service in the quiet rooms the atmosphere of stability and security. There had not been too much of either in her life.

In her father's day there had been a good deal of moving about. The time of the great war had seen him shifted and promoted constantly. There had been a hotel in Augusta, another hotel in Washington, there had been quarters in Watervliest. Four postwar years in Watervliest had provided about the longest peaceful domestic interval she and her mother ever had known; then there had come widowhood for Catherine Britton, and after that continual changing and a continual descent of the financial scale. Mrs. Britton was a delicate, irresolute, apprehensive woman, to be left with a spirited 12-year-old daughter to raise had appaled her. For a while she had visited cousins and aunts, but one by one these places of refuge had altered or disappeared. Finally she and Jocelyn had come back to San Francisco, drawn by the older woman's memory of happy younger days at the Presidio, and there had finished high school and gotten her first office work.

By this time Catherine Britton had been crippled with arthritis. So Jocelyn came back from the office to read to her mother, to adjust hot-water bags, to discuss the trival episode of an invalid's day, and when she did escape for a night to Maple Den, it was always with the promise to return at a certain hour, and not to keep darling Mama waiting. When her mother died Jocelyn had grieved deeply and truly, but at that exact time she had been launched upon the perilous and thrilling friendship with the tall, handsome, clever commercial artist whose studio was a floor or two above the offices of Fordyce, Sawyer & Fordyce. Saddened by the ending of the old life, and tortured by the half promises and half hopes of the new, she had felt all her actual moorings gone, and now, as she soberly considered the immediate past, she realized that something of her moral moorings had been swept away with them.

She was already conscious of a wish that Kent Dunham were out of the picture, safely up in Portland with Lilian, explaining to her that he must have been mad to talk as he had of change and divorce. Knowing Lilian, Jocelyn knew that she would accept these representations on their face value. What Lilian wanted was Kent and security and everyday comfort.

The whole thing had been soiling, somehow; Jocelyn wanted to wash it away as she might an earth stain from her fingers. In this fine old-fashioned house, playing duenna to a girl of sixteen, she knew that she might do so. And if she really won Norma's affection, really steered her safely through some of the rapids of modern social living, then it would seem to be a sort of expiation—a saving for herself as well as Norma.

Alone in the great place, except for the servants, all during the day following, she busied herself happily in getting her effects settled, in writing a long letter to her aunt and a brief one to Kent, and in much wandering over and investigating of Hill Acres. Acres they were indeed, she discovered. The gates at Hill Acres were a quarter of a mile from the house, and toward the west, behind the buildings of house and garage, barns and sheds and fences, the orchards stretched up almost to the Skyline ridge.

There were two tennis courts, being treated now by mysterious laborers with wheelbarrows and scrapers. There was an oval swimming pool, with more men working away at its cement lining, and still others struggling with potted plants and small trees in the freshly turned earth about it. There were many terraces; wherever Jocelyn wandered she found some new group of shallow steps and overarching trees and tiered levels where summer-afternoon groups might form themselves under big umbrellas for bridge or idle gossip.

Inside the house there was the same evidence of the family's love of luxury and power to secure it. And Jocelyn had never enjoyed luxury before.

"No matter what these people expect of me, or what I have to do," she said to herself before she had been 24 hours at Hill Acres, "I'll remain here. I can get a thousand things I want here, things I'd never get in an office the longest day in the world! If Norma studies French, I'll study French. If she rides, I'll ride. The old lady may be feeble and troublesome, and Norma may be spoiled, but I'll manage them! I'm going to stay here from now on."

Jocelyn was sitting at dinner on her third evening at Hill Acres, beginning to get a little tired of solitude, when suddenly there was confusion in the faraway arcades that concealed the front hallway and immediately afterward a handsome woman who looked about 40 came in, flung aside a smothering confusion of silver and black fox furs, sank into a seat opposite Jocelyn and said impatiently to the butler, "'Do, Lerenz! Get me two old-fashioneds, right away. Where's somebody? That stuff in the hall is to go up to my room! You're—Phil said he couldn't get poor Miss Sanderson and I suppose you're the pinch hitter? Put the portable radio on the table, somebody."

The last phrases were addressed to Jocelyn, who merely smiled feebly in reply. She had not the faintest idea who this could be, and found it hard to answer a person whose identity was so completely unknown. Lorenz placed a radio on the table, and the newcomer instantly shifted the dials. The roar and shouting of Madison Square Garden on a packed night filled the room.

"And plants a light left on the head of Teddy Parsons." Jocelyn heard. The statement was followed by the somewhat remarkable phrase. "Boy is stamina and endurance to do their work tonight! This is a—it's a left, and another, and Joe Rupetti," the voice raced on breathlessly, "—wait a minute, he is counting—three—four—and he's up again, like he was last time—he's up, and he's going—he has landed a light jab, and another on Teddy Parsons' chin . . ."

"I'll bet there was a count while I was getting out of the cab, damn it. I could have held the taxi," Jocelyn's companion said in an irritated undertone. "You," she said to a trim little maid who had suddenly appeared in support of the butler, "go out and see what happened about five minutes ago in the Rupetti-Parsons fight. There must be someone out in the kitchen who's interested. I'm going out to dinner, Lorenz," added the crisp voice, "but I'll have a cup of soup if he's got any—ah, here we are with round seven!"

The fight continued for possibly six more minutes, when there was a knockout, and the lady had the radio carried away.

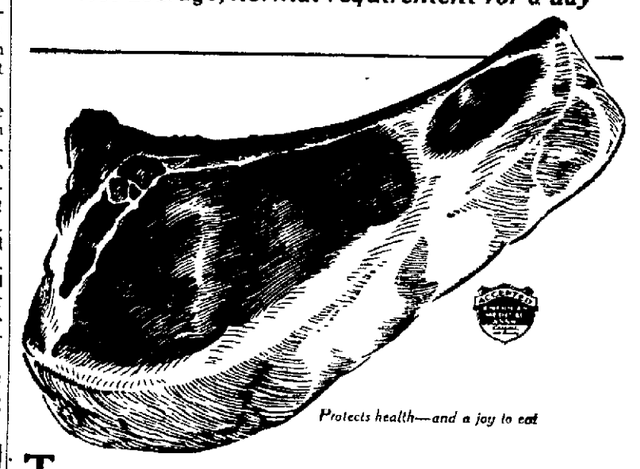
Recent Findings About Pork

One pork chop contains enough "thiamine" to meet average, normal requirement for a day



Protects health—and a joy to eat

THE PORK which we have always relished now takes new rank as a healthful food.

Dr. C. A. Elvehjem, professor of agricultural chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, as the result of his extensive vitamin research, finds that lean pork is a rich natural source of what is now known as the Vitamin B group.

An important member of this vitamin "family" is Vitamin B-1 (thiamine) which physicians and nutritionists recognize as necessary for growth, for a healthy appetite, for protection against certain conditions and nervous disorders.

According to scientific assays by Dr. Elvehjem, in the Journal of Nutrition, "one pork chop, even after thorough frying, may supply up to 325 International Units, which is about equal to entire daily requirement for Vitamin B-1 of the normal adult."

The same applies to an equal quantity of lean roast pork, or ham, fresh or smoked.

Pork and various other meats are also rich in riboflavin (Vitamin B-2 or G) which is necessary for normal nutrition.

The same study shows that meat as a whole is an important source of the pellagra-preventive factor, another member of the Vitamin B group. This discovery may well lead to the complete eradication of pellagra, a condition prevalent in certain sections, and many borderline cases which exist throughout the country.

ATTEND PARLEY

Mansfield Delegation Gets Set For C. of C. Convention.

A delegation of Mansfield businessmen will go to Cincinnati next month to attend the 47th annual meeting of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce. The conferences are scheduled for Nov. 7 and 8.

Included among those who will attend the two-day sessions are John W. Graham, general manager of the News-Journal, and a director in the state organization; C. L. Van Derau, president of the Mansfield Chamber of Commerce, and John G. Routzon, secretary-manager.

Speakers will include Rear Admiral Clark H. Woodward, Commandant of the Brooklyn Navy yards, who will discuss the new defense program in its relation to business and industry; Gov. John W. Bricker, Dr. Paul F. Cadman, economist for the American Bankers association; Joyce O'Hara, national representative of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States; W. J. Cameron of the Ford Motor company.

ATTENDS 75 SCHOOLS

ST. LOUIS—(U.P.)—June Handke, junior at Soldan high school here, has set some sort of a record for number of schools attended. Miss Handke, 16, has entered 75 schools in the 10 years of her scholastic life. She has enrolled in schools in every state in the union, Canada and Mexico, but she has never missed a grade. Her father is a salesman.

JOBLESS IN 3 COUNTIES PAID $39,175 BY BUC

September Report Reflects Gain in Business, Industry In District.

Compensation benefits totaling $39,175 were distributed to Richland, Ashland and Morrow county jobless workers during September by the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, it was reported today by C. W Handley, district manager

The amounts boost to $296 303, benefits paid to totally and partially unemployed workers in the three-county district since Jan. 1.

The 3,767 checks mailed by the bureau showed a decrease of nearly eight per cent under the August total, reflecting a continued upswing of business and industry in the district.

Average weekly benefits paid to unemployed workers in the district for total unemployment was $11.09 as compared to a statewide average of $10.41.

Average weekly benefits for partial unemployment of $6.46 were slightly higher than the state average of $4 95 duting the month

Additional evidence of better industrial conditions was seen in the new claims filed at the Mansfield district office during September, the total of 215 howing a 13 per cent drop from the previous month

Placement of jobless workers in industry last month totaled 266, an increase of nearly 10 per cent over August, Handley said

New applications for benefits totaled 431, to boost the bureau's active file to 3,445 persons in the district seeking employment.

Father Sold Her?

Authorities of the juvenile detention home at San Jose, Calif., are holding Rachel Steril, above, pending an investigation of a story she told a San Jose court of her being "sold" by her father to a 15-year-old youth. She claims her father "repossessed" her when the youth defaulted on the final payment.

TRAINING CENTER CONSTRUCTION STARTS MONDAY

Ground-Breaking Ceremony to Be Held Sunday at Site Near Charles Mill.

Ground breaking ceremonies and dedication of a flag pole Sunday afternoon at Charles Mill reservoir will mark the start of the National Youth administration resident training center, first of its type in the state.

Construction of the camp, which will ultimately house between 200 and 300 youths between 18 and 25, will be started Monday by a crew of about 40 boys under A. P. Hubbs, construction engineer for N. Y. A.

L. C. Roesner, sub-area supervisor, said plans were being prepared by officers of McVey Post of the American Legion for ground breaking ceremonies and dedication of a 60-foot steel flag pole, furnished by the Ohio Fuel Gas company.

Although the program has not been completed, it is expected that the Legion drum and bugle corps will be present for the exercises, Roesner said.

The resident center being constructed, in connection with the national defense program of vocational education and similar in some respects to the permanent NYA camp established at New Philadelphia several years ago, will be located on a site just north of U. S. route 30 on the west side of the lake.

Plans had originally called for construction south of route 30, but were changed by engineers who have platted a 20-acre site almost opposite the state roadside park west of the lake, Roesner added.

He said construction would be "rushed" on one dormitory, a kitchen and mess hall in order that occupancy of the first contingent of youths could be made by Nov. 15.

The entire project, consisting of 18 buildings, constructed of prefabricated materials similar to those used in CCC camp construction, is scheduled for completion by Jan. 1.

The quarters will be the first of a series of similar centers to be located throughout the state for housing youths, who will be given vocational, but non-military training in industrial arts in connection with the national defense program, Roesner said.

WOMAN ADVISES SEX TO SHOOT

CHEYENNE, Wyo.—American women who are strangers to modern firearms had better get acquainted with them immediately, according to Mrs. Matilda Fornberg, 85-year-old pioneer who helped fight off the Indians in Kansas in 1877.

Mrs. Fornberg still takes her turn at rifle range competitions and "turkey shoots" despite her age, and is said to be one of the best women shots in Wyoming.

She believes that "in these war times it would be well for all women to become crack shots."

Informally Speaking...

By MARIANNE

THESE are busy days for Charles Ireland (a Mansfielder who's a sophomore at the College of Wooster this year). He is a member of the annual Homecoming play to be presented on the campus Oct. 24, 25 and 26. . . . The cast is giving Sutton Vane's "Outward Bound" under the direction of Dr. Delbert G. Lean, head of the college speech department, and Charles has the part of Scrubby. . . . The son of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Ireland, Charles sings in the Men's Glee club and is a member of Clericus and German clubs at the school. . . . Incidentally, you Wooster alumni might be interested in knowing that Wooster's Homecoming program for Saturday, the 26th, includes a football game with Muskingum, a cross-country race with Oberlin, "open house" for all grads in the various dormitories, a buffet supper in Babcock hall for alumni, and—of course—the annual alumni-student dance.

Mrs. J. H. Finefrock has been in Cleveland yesterday and today, attending the third annual Alumnae Regional Branch conference of Flora Stone Mather college of Western Reserve university. . . . She'll be there tomorrow, too, serving in her capacity as an alumnae adviser for girls interested in enrolling at the school. The conference program has been designed to show different phases of Mather college life.

Dr. Otto B. Hohendorf is leaving today for Piqua, where he will spend the week-end. . . . The most important event of his stay there will be the wedding of his nephew, Marion Fry, and Dorothy Decker. . . . The ceremony will be solemnized tomorrow morning before the altar of St. Mary's Catholic church.

HAVE you seen Mrs. Sanford Strother since she arrived in town? She was formerly Betz Princehorn, and she and her daughter, Belinda (who's just two and a half years old) are visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Princehorn. . . . They're here from their home in Eagle Rock, a suburb of Los Angeles, Cal., and it's their first trip east in quite some time . . . Mr. Strother couldn't leave his work long enough to come with them—you see, he's an animator at the Walt Disney studios in Hollywood. . . . Mrs. Strother and Belinda plan to stay for about two more weeks.

Many Mansfield collegians are busy with pledge duties just now because they've recently joined social groups at their various schools. . . . Margie Schwein (who's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Schwein) pledged Delta Delta Delta sorority at Kent State college, where she's a freshman, while Kay Giessner was pledged to the same group down at Miami university, where she also is a freshman. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Giessner. . . . New among the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity pledges on the Wittenberg college campus is Robert Sheriff, son of Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Sheriff.

* * *

SUSAN BELL PASTE is leaving for Columbus this week-end as she will begin work at the Lazarus store there Monday. . . . She attended Ohio university in Athens the past two years and was a member of Chi Omega sorority there. In June she attended her sorority's national convention at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and since then she has been residing here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Paste. . . . During the summer months she helped with classes at the Friendly House.

Re-Elect Officers at Meeting of Social Club

All the officers of the Chautauqua circle were re-elected yesterday when Mrs. Marie Lomax, Reba avenue, entertained with a covered-dish dinner at her home. They are Mrs. A. H. Weikert, president; Mrs. A. O. Widders, vice president; Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell, secretary - treasurer; Mrs. A. J. McHugh, press correspondent, and Mrs. Lomax, flower secretary.

The house was attractively decorated, as was the table when the members were seated. Guests were Mrs. Emma Stone, Mrs. Mildred Erhman and Mrs. Jack Ritchey. Bunco was played and prizes won by the guests and Mrs. Will Lorow, Mrs. Widders, and Mrs. Martin Biddle. The next meeting will be held Nov. 13 with Mrs. Roy Hart, Arthur avenue.

Name New President Of Club Yesterday

NEW HARD-WATER SUDS WON'T "GRAY" STOCKING COLORS

Are you sick of using soap that just won't suds in this hard water? Then here's a new and different suds that bursts into mountains of rich, billowy suds in hardest water. Yes, Vel makes 5 times more suds than any soap, cup for cup, in hardest water. In fact, the harder the water the bigger the suds. You don't have to rub and soak the life out of dainty things. Just a swish in Vel's rich suds and soil and stale ness vanish like magic from stockings, underwear, and all fine fabrics. Yet Vel suds make no horrid, hard-water scum to gray the fresh delicate colors of stockings and other dainty garments. That's why everything washed with Vel comes out so radiant, fresh and new looking. Buy Vel today and see why women with "hard-water blues" now sing the praises of this new suds.

Sorority Gives Party In Honor Of Two Members

Members of Gamma chapter of Gamma Gamma Gamma sorority entertained with a party for Mrs. James Seymour and Mrs. Ben Wigton yesterday evening at the Colonial Guest House on the Wooster road. Guests at the affair included members of the honoree's chapter, Beta, of the sorority. Mrs. Seymour is the former Miss Jessie Thomas, while Mrs. Wigton was Miss Doris Marshall before her marriage.

Bridge was played at five tables during the evening, and score prizes were won by Miss Virginia Chew and Mrs. Wigton. After the games, luncheon was served at the small tables.

Both Mrs. Seymour and Mrs. Wigton received gifts from Gamma chapter members in honor of the occasion. Miss Eileen Logan was in charge of arrangements for the affair, assisted by the Misses Beverly Schwein and Jane Sowash.

It was announced last evening that members of Delta chapter of the sorority will be hostess for a joint meeting of the Mansfield chapters of the sorority and Epsilon chapter of Ashland on Oct. 24 at Wickcliffe Manor, Mrs. George Bender will be the general chairman at that time.

Church Society Honors Members

At the meeting of the Willing Workers society of Little Washington yesterday several events were celebrated. Mrs. Verda Luth and Mrs. Lester McFarland were honored on the occasion of their birthdays, while Mrs. Thomas Banks was feted in celebration of her golden wedding anniversary. Other anniversaries observed were those of Mrs. Albert Keifer, 58th, and Mrs. Irwin Steele, 52nd.

Guests included Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Overmeyer, Lucas, Mrs. Kate Rush, Hayesville, Mrs. L. K. Charles, Mrs. Barney Banks, Miss Gladys Banks and Mrs. Harry Beer, all of Mansfield. Mrs. Banks was presented with a gold thimble by the group.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Ford Banks, who were married seven years ago today, had dinner with the senior Banks at Little Washington in celebration of their anniversary.

Timely Topics Club Opens Year at Shafer's

Eleven members of the Timely Topic club motored to the Alcove in Mt. Vernon yesterday for luncheon and then went to Mrs. Blake Shafer's home in Bellville for their opening fall meeting. During the afternoon Mrs. George Wintersteen presented a paper entitled "Chemistry Applied to the Home," in which she traced the history of the science from the early American frontier days to the present time.

Miss Carolyn Walter will be the hostess for the next meeting, Oct. 25. Mrs. A. H. Lewis is planning to give a book review at that time, and current events will be discussed.

Series of Events Given for Bride Of Charles Mayer

A series of parties has been given recently for Mrs. Charles Mayer, the former Miss Edna Yeingst. Members of the Taps Girls' club gave a dinner party for her at Wickliffe Manor, and the tables were decorated with garden flowers and lighted tapers. Each of the 22 members received a small lamp as a favor, and bridge, hearts and Chinese checkers were played during the evening. Miss Mildred Hickman and Velda Temple were in charge of arrangements, and the group presented the honoree with a linen table service.

Mrs. S. O. Mayer, mother of the bridegroom, gave a miscellaneous shower for the bride, and the guests in attendance hemmed towels for her. Miss Clara Parker's home on Rae avenue was the scene of a party given for Mrs. Mayer by members of the L. A. Palmer class of the First Methodist church, who presented her with a wedding gift. Twelve of the former Miss Yeingst's friends showered her with gifts at a dessert-luncheon which Miss Celia Brumbach gave at her home in Shiloh.

Two Hostesses Fete Bride-Elect

Mrs. Edward Hinz, Crestline road, and Miss Joan Stout entertained in honor of Miss Esther Lantz, bride-elect. A bathroom shower was given, and the hostesses presented the honoree with a hamper. Cards were played, and Miss Lantz and Miss Vivian Walter won the prizes. Miss Walter presented her award to the honoree.

The guests were seated at a round table decorated with a centerpiece of cut flowers, and each place was marked with a tiny sponge turtle. Tonight Miss Marguerite Speas is entertaining for Miss Lantz.

She will become the bride of Harry C. Lytle in an open church ceremony at the Park Avenue Baptist church Oct. 26 at 2:30 p. m.

CHURCH GROUPS HAVE OCTOBER MEETINGS

Miss Clara Yeager Entertains Loyal Daughters Class At Dinner; Programs Offered at Other Sessions.

THURSDAY was another busy day for women who are members of the various church organizations throughout the city. Miss Clara Yeager, teacher, entertained the Loyal Daughters class of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church at a two-course dinner party last night at her home on South Diamond street.

Fall garden flowers decorated the table at which the 18 guests were seated. Officers were elected later in the evening. They are Mrs. Margaret Hunt, president; Mrs. Stenna Mansfield, vice president; Mrs. Edith Wagner, secretary; Mrs. Ada Leppert, treasurer, and Mrs. Florence Dillon, press correspondent.

The remainder of the evening was spent socially, with contest winners being Mrs. Dillon, Mrs. Anna Hunter, Mrs. Leppert, Mrs. Bertha Marmet, Miss Frieda Boebel and Mrs. Hunt. Mrs. Ida Arnold, Hedges street, will entertain Nov. 14.

There were 12 members and five guests of the St. Agnes guild of the Grace Episcopal church present at the home of Mrs. Ralph Harris, 123 West Third street, last night. A social evening was enjoyed with members playing bridge and Chinese checkers. Prizes were won by Mrs. James Davidson and Mrs. Hazel Whisler.

Luncheon was served at small tables decorated with fall flowers. The next meeting will be held Oct. 22 in the undercroft of the church with Mrs. I. H. LeBarre entertaining.

* * *

Miss Grace Finical, 424 Springmill street, opened her home last night to members of the Women's guild of the Mayflower Congregational church. Mrs. George Finical was a guest. Mrs. Clyde Adams presided over the business meeting after which she, assisted by Mrs. Albert Frank and the hostess, presented a short missionary program.

Another meeting will be held Nov. 14 at the president's home on Johns avenue.

The initial session of the Women's guild of St. Matthew's Lutheran church was held yesterday afternoon when the first division served luncheon to 40 members of the church. Mrs. Robert Miller, first division chairman, presented a program including music and talks. The next meeting will be held Dec. 12 with the second division in charge.

* * *

There were 11 members of the Alpha class of St. Matthew's Lutheran church present for a meeting at the home of Mrs. Rosa DeWitt on Helen avenue last evening. Mrs. Carl Vermilya conducted the business session, and Mrs. Vincent Brown was in charge of the devotions. Luncheon was served at the close of the social hour. Mrs. Eva Lucabaugh has invited the group to meet at her home, 221 Bowman street, on Nov. 11.

* * *

Members of the St. Luke's Lutheran church Women's guild had their regular meeting yesterday when Mrs. Ida Harbeson led the devotions. The subject was "The Bethany Sisters." Barbara McDowell gave two piano selections, and Mrs. Cloyd Hines showed pictures of her Puerto Rician trip. Dinner was served. The next meeting will be held Nov. 13 at the church.

Marriage Meddlers

By ADELE GARRISON

Continuation of "Married Comrades"

"The idea grew with the years," Philip went on. "Every fiber of my being, every energy was devoted to making that dream come true. And I spared no pains, no money, to fit my son for the high place I was determined he should fill.

"He was tutored and trained within an inch of his life, and so imbued was I with the idea of making him fit for royalty that when he went away to college I provided him with a roommate who never could have gone to college but for the money I gave him. I had planned that he should valet my son and be his bodyguard—of course no such arrangement would be permitted in any American college — but Jack Leslie was delighted with the idea—or appeared to be, as long as he could keep it secret and live in the luxury which I provided for Noel and himself.

"Jack Leslie!" I gasped, although I might have guessed the name was coming. When I first had heard the story of Noel's college years, I had known that Jack Leslie was the rascally roommate who had permitted Noel to be expelled from college for a theft which he, himself, had committed, and of which Noel was not only innocent, but ignorant. But I had not known until this dramatic moment that the boy had been hired by Philip Veritzen as a companion and servant for his son.

"But I learned afterward, from classmates of the two boys," Noel's father went on, "that Noel never would permit the valet-bodyguard arrangement, but treated Jack as if he were a devoted and loyal friend. You know, I fancy, how Jack repaid that consideration."

Both Lillian and I nodded, for we well knew how Leslie, like many another mean soul had cherished a secret hatred of his benefactor from the moment of Noel's sacrifice in his behalf, and had lost no opportunity to injure him.

"I knew my boy was innocent of theft," Philip Veritzen said after a pause, "but when quixotically he would not defend himself against the accusation except by silence, because pointing out Leslie as the real culprit would involve an innocent girl, as well as betray his former friend, I fairly went beserk. His action spelled the ruin of everything for which I had hoped. My dream of a royal alliance for Noel was shattered, and in my rage at his obstinacy—for a word from him would have cleared him with the college authorities who believed in him and strongly suspected the truth—I disinherited him, even withholding his mother's patrimony of which I had the legal handling, and turned him out of my house."

His voice trailed away, his eyes fixed themselves upon a point beyond us, and for the space of almost a minute there was a silence in the room that in the banal but graphic old simile "could have been cut with a knife."

"I think the seeds of the madness which later consumed me were planted then," he finally went on, "but for a long time there was nothing I could do but throw myself into my work, and try to forget that I ever had a son.

"Then I met you."—his eyes glanced at me fleetingly, "and Lillian told me about the marvelous talent of your husband's niece, Mary.

"What happened next, how I took her under my tutelage with the intention of making her a Veritzen star, is as well known to both of you as was the way she repaid my training by appearing as a masked dancer in the cabaret where Jack Leslie danced and my son, Noel, played the violin."

BROWN WITH GREY

Benedictine brown is one of autumn's new high style colors. It is a bright brown and is being shown in combination with grey and black as well as green. All of the tawny browns are prominent in the fall fashion picture.

HOROSCOPE

For Saturday, October 12.

RAPID development of an exciting and drastic force may be looked for on this day under the impetus of a high acceleration of planetary operations. Especially does all relating to writing, publishing, advertising and promotional enterprises move with swift and far reaching effect on perhaps lagging or static situations.

Those whose birthday it is are assured of a lively year with much swift action if not drastic events in business, new contracts, and all manner of promotions. Particularly under high stimuli will be mental work, fresh plans.

A child born on this day should be exceedingly talented and versatile, with brilliant intellect, fitting it for a professional career.

Discuss Vegetables At Pavonia Session

Mrs. Lee Hale was hostess for a meeting of the Pavonia Garden and Literary club last evening at her home near Pavonia. The 16 members present discussed vegetables during the evening, and a vegetable display was arranged by Mrs. Howard Meyer, jr. Mrs. Waldo Hale read a paper entitled, "What I Would Plant In a Vegetable Garden," and "Benefits Received From My Vegetable Garden" was the subject of Mrs. Avery Hale's paper.

Mrs. John Horn read a poem, and refreshments then were served by the hostess and her associate, Mrs. Edward Groff. A number of the club members are planning to attend a convention of the Federation of Farm Women in Plymouth next Thursday. Mrs. Glenn Hout has invited the group to her home for the meeting of Nov. 8.

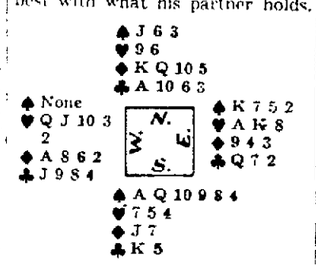
BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By Shepard Barclay

"The Authority on Authorities"

CO-OPERATION VITAL

Individual brilliancy may not be worth a tinker's darn on defense unless it is supplemented by co-operation between the partners. Nothing is prettier than to see two able cardsmen work out a plan between them to beat the declarer, each doing just the thing which is necessary to fit in best with what his partner holds.



(Dealer: North. East-West vulnerable.)

North	East	South	West
Pass	Pass	1 ♠	Pass
2 ♦	Pass	2 ♠	Pass

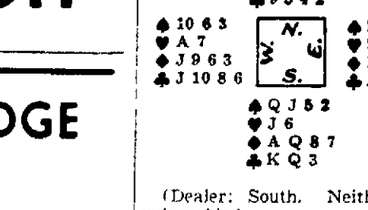
Approximately the same bidding led to spade game contracts at two duplicate tables when this hand reached them. The contract was made at one, beaten at the other, though play began exactly the same at both. West led the heart Q. East overtaking with the K, laying down the A and leading back a third one to make dummy ruff and thereby try to assure a trick with the spade K through making it impossible for the declarer to lead through it three times.

Both tables produced the same plays for the next two tricks, finesses of the spade J and Q, and then the diamond J was led by South in each case. At one of those tables, West took this with the A and returned a heart for declarer to ruff. South then went to dummy with the diamond K and led the Q, which he trumped, leaving him only two trumps, the A-10. He cashed the club K, led to the club A, then offered another club. East's K was caught in the grand coup.

At the other table, when the diamond J was led, West ducked, winning the second diamond trick and returning a heart. By this, he destroyed one of the dummy's entries, so that declarer could not ruff out enough of his trumps. At the end he had to lead to East, who took the setting trick with his spade K.

Tomorrow's Problem.



(Dealer: South. Neither side vulnerable.)

When West leads the club J against South's 3-No Trumps, what can East do to beat the contract?

Wheeler Urges Kellogg Pact Conference With Japan

SAYS RUSSIA ONLY WINNER IN EAST WAR

Hysteria Sweeps Capital as Japanese Threats Get Alliance Backing.

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON —War hysteria now sweeping the nation's capital, today provoked Sen. Burton K. Wheeler, Montana Liberal, into proposing that the United States and Japan consult under the Kellogg-Briand peace pact to avoid a war that can end in Communist domination of the world.

Wheeler repeated his warning of Sept. 12, that the United States is on the brink of war with Japan. He added that if the United States does go to war, "Russia and Communism will be the only victors."

The war hysteria, which has engulfed congress, has been engendered by high government officials who—publicly or privately—predict war with Japan in the very near future.

One of the best informed officials in Washington told International News Service he has every reason to expect war "within two months." Another told a columnist that war with Japan would break on October 17, the day after Britain reopens the Burma supply road into China. Asked about the latter forecast, Secretary of the Navy Knox replied: "I don't concur; I don't think anybody knows."

The war issue has divided official Washington into several camps. One group, believing a Japanese war is inevitable, feels it should be fought now while Japan is engaged in China and while Britain will give the United States full military support. A second group, believing the war unnecessary but still likely, charges it is being provoked by British interests. A third group, opposed to the war, believes Japan will back down before the threat of war with the United States and Britain, despite probable assurances of help from Germany and Italy.

A month ago, Wheeler told International News Service: "We are heading toward war. Every move since last September has been in that direction. . . . A great many people in the know feel there is greater danger of our getting into war in the Orient than into the war in Europe."

Asked whether he held the same view now, Wheeler replied:

"Since then, events have proved my statement is coming true. I believe we are on the brink of war with Japan today. And if we get into war with Japan, it means we are in war in Europe as well as in Asia, because of Japan's alliance with Germany and Italy.

"This war will be a long-drawn-out affair. It will cost the American people untold billions of dollars, in addition to lives. Win, lose or draw, it will mean inflation and then a terrific deflation with a worse debacle than we had in 1929. Misery and starvation will stalk not only Europe and Asia but the United States as well.

"And as we slip into this war, we should remember that there is one great Communist country waiting on the sidelines for such an eventuality. Russia and Communism can be the only victors in such a conflict.

"I cannot believe that Japan wants war with the United States. If we stop buying her silk and stop selling her cotton and munitions, Japan will be wrecked economically."

17-Year-Old Ohio Youth Sentenced To Chillicothe

PITTSBURGH — (NS) — Robert Wilson, 17, whose criminal "career" began at the age of 13, today was sentenced to three years in the federal reformatory at Chillicothe, O.

Pleading guilty to his fourth automobile robbery, Wilson, son of a former Akron policeman, was sentenced by Judge F. P. Schoonmaker, who said:

"This might do you some good. You're definitely on the wrong track."

Federal agents said Robert's record shows three escapes from a Lancaster, O., reformatory—including one in which he hit a guard on the head with a wrecking bar.

The 1941 plates will have white letters and numerals on a maroon background.

FILE CLAIMS

245 In Richland County Ask Accident Compensation.

Richland county industrial workers filed 245 injury claims with the Ohio Industrial commission in August, and one worker suffered fatal injuries during the month, the commission's report showed today.

Three of the Richland claims were for permanent partial disability, while 33 reported over seven days lost time due to injuries, and 27 were for seven days or less lost time. Total time lost workers as the result of injuries was 9,434 days.

In Ohio, 91 workers were killed on the job and 19,890 injury claims were filed, largest since October, 1937. The marked increase in injuries was attributed to increased industrial activities in the national defense program.

CONCERT-GOERS JOIN SINGING

Cleveland Orchestra Season Opened Last Night.

CLEVELAND—(NS)—The 23rd season of the Cleveland orchestra was officially started today after an audience of 1,800 ended the performance by singing "The Star Spangled Banner" under the direction of Dr. Artur Rodzinski, orchestra conductor.

Veteran concert-goers, dressed in their newest and best, heard the "London Symphony" by Vaughn Williams, England's best known composer and a Rodzinski favorite. Also played were Strauss' somber tone poem "Death and Transfiguration," the Brahms variation on a theme by Haydn, and Elgar's classic English march "Pomp and Circumstance."

TO START WORK ON PLANE PLANT

Columbus Leases 100-Acre Factory Site For $1 To Curtiss-Wright.

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS—A thousand workmen will begin construction of a $10,000,000 airplane factory on land adjoining Port Columbus within a month, Vice President Charles W. Loos of the Curtiss-Wright corporation announced today.

The Columbus city council yesterday cleared the way for erection of the plant by granting the corporation a 25-year lease on the 100-acre factory site, for $1 a year.

Mayor Floyd F. Green estimated that the factory would be ready to begin production about April 1. Its output will be 1,700 planes annually.

The plant will comprise six buildings and will employ 12,000 persons. Its annual pay roll is estimated at $15,000,000 for peak production.

Loos said that a majority of the employes would come from central Ohio and that training schools might be established for workers.

The Reconstruction finance corporation lent Curtiss-Wright $34,000,000 to finance plants in Columbus, Buffalo and St. Louis.

CELEBRATE

C. of C. Member Drive Teams to Dine Tonight.

A "victory dinner" for 60 team workers who participated in the 28th annual Chamber of Commerce membership campaign will be held at 6:30 p. m. today at the Mansfield-Leland hotel.

The 30 two-man teams concluded a four-day drive last week enlisting 107 new members and boosting the chamber membership past the 700 mark, highest in history.

The campaign was directed by Robert Remy, chairman of the chamber's membership committee, under the leadership of Paul M. Eliot, honorary chairman and John B. Conard, co-chairman.

Prizes will be awarded to winning teams and runnersup tonight by C. L. VanDerau, president of the organization, who is expected to return from Dayton. He was called there by the death of his mother.

NOT FUNNY

HOLLYWOOD —(NS)— Jimmy Durante, the funny man of the stage and screen is not funny at home, according to his wife, Jeanne Durante, who had a separate maintenance suit on file today against "Schnozzola."

MANSFIELDER NAMED TO KENYON COLLEGE ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

Simultaneously with the publishing of his first book, came the announcement today that Charles McKinley, jr., has been appointed administrative assistant of Kenyon college.

McKinley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKinley, Sherman avenue, and brother of Harold C. McKinley, former Mansfield newspaperman now with the Associated Press in Cleveland, is an alumnus of Kenyon. His work in his new position will be three-fold: to assist Dean Hoag in the development of a placement service for graduates and under graduates, to assist in admission work and the handling of alumni correspondence.

His book will be off the press Oct. 25. It is titled "A Voyage to the British Isles" and is written somewhat on the style of the 17th century travel books, and will bear a novel title page in that tradition.

It is a collection of 10 essays, written on his leisurely tour of England in the summer of 1939 just prior to the declaration of war. He relates interesting experiences during his visits to the Channel Islands, to the Dame de Sark, to London, Canterbury, Stratford-on-Avon, and with Lord Kenyon, great grandson of the nobleman who contributed largely to the founding of Kenyon college and for whom it was named.

CHARLES McKINLEY, JR.

Prof. John Crowe Ranson, editor of the Kenyon Review and one of America's leading literary critics, has written the foreward. The first edition will be marked as such and will be limited to 200 copies.

The book becomes increasingly important as the German air war on England continues to destroy the beauty that belongs to the British Isles, much of which can never be replaced. It takes on the aspect of a last look at the old England before the war.

NORSE SERFS

Nazis Reported Ruling With Heavy Hand in Norway.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Norwegian legation said today it had heard from Oslo that the "Nazi rulers of Norway" have imposed a state of serfdom, including a rule that "no farmer may from now on go to the city without special permission from the authorities."

The legation added that "'unemployed' Norwegians will be transferred to Germany, thus sharing the fate that has already come to Polish laborers."

DROUTH AFTER LATE PLANTING HURTS FARMERS

Dry September Weather Gave Some Help to Maturing Crop in State.

(By United Press)

COLUMBUS — The extent of damage to the 1940 Ohio corn crop by weather extremes was more fully realized today when the United States department of agriculture estimated the Ohio corn production at 111,090,000 bushels—only 65 per cent of last year's yield.

This yield, estimated as of Oct. 1, was only about 83 per cent of the 10-year (1929-38) Ohio average yield.

The national estimate, also as of Oct. 1, was 2,353,185,000 bushels—about 90 per cent of the 1939 yield and two per cent above the ten-year figure.

Here are the figures:

	U. S.	Ohio
1940	2,352,185,000	111,090,000
1939	2,619,137,000	171,250,000
1929-38	2,299,342,000	135,000,000

Last year's great Ohio corn crop produced a 50-bushel an acre yield over 3,425,000 acres. Figuring from the Oct. 1 estimate and the fact that the Ohio corn acreage is about six per cent lower than 1939, this year's average acre-yield will be about 35 bushels. This is a drop of 15 bushels an acre from last year and six bushels an acre below the 10-year average of 41 bushels.

The department of agriculture reported that dry September weather favored the maturing crop. Previous to that conditions had been largely adverse.

First there were the rains which interfered with the planting of the crop, and then the other extreme—drought, as severe as the state has ever known. During August there was the blazing sun and no rain. These factors, combined with the various other detriments, kept the Ohio crop down to the estimate of 111,090,000 bushels.

The current worry of Ohio farmers is winter wheat. Dr. C. J. Willard, professor of agronomy at Ohio State university, said there were reports of insufficient moisture for the germination of the already-planted 1941 wheat. Willard said the situation is not serious as yet and can be alleviated by a little rainfall.

This year wheat was up five per cent and oats 19 per cent, according to the national report.

The fruit crop is big, and because of restricted exports of supply will be large, the department said. Commercial apple production is five per cent below average, pears are up 22 per cent and grapes 14.

The Voice of BROADWAY

—By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

TALES FROM TIMES SQUARE.

Eddy Duchin, who spent all last summer in Hollywood, was relaying the latest Barrymore gags to a tableful at the Starlight Roof last night. It seems that Barrymore was called on the carpet by an important movie producer, who proceeded to give the recalcitrant actor a double feature tongue-lashing.

During a high spot in the altercation the producer shook his finger under Barrymore's nose, and the Great Profile snapped:

"Don't you point your finger at me. I remember when it had a thimble on it!"

These days the Broadwayites keep talking about the draft—those over 35, jocularly, those within the age limit, apprehensively. One fellow at Billy's Gay Nineties the other evening was awfully depressed, and Bert Wheeler tried to cheer him up. "Your chances of being called," the comedian comforted, "are about 10,000 to one."

"That's what they told me when I bought a sweepstakes ticket," the gloomy fellow responded, "and what happened—I won!"

Garson Kanin, the film genius, caused giggles at the Beachcomber an evening or two ago with his impression of the big, burly drunk who was airing his political views at a midtown bar. "Who're ya votin' for?" he growled at the man next to him, grabbing him by the lapels.

"Roosevelt," was the reply. . . . "You're awright," said the drunk, and he staggered over to another customer and grabbed him by the collar.

"Who're you votin' for?" he demanded.

"Roosevelt," was the frightened answer.

"You're okay," mumbled the inebriate and then, in a corner, he spied a little Caspar Milquetoast wearing a Willkie button the size of a grapefruit.

He lurched over, grabbed the little fellow by the scruff of the neck and roared:

"AND WHO ARE YOU VOTIN' FOR?"

The trembling little man looked up and shrugged.

"Who's voting?" he said.

The boys around Lindy's swear they know the cab driver who was flagged over to the curb the other afternoon by an irate policeman.

"Sure," reasoned the cabbie, "but I'm driving William Saroyan!"

A friend of Grace Hartman has just returned from the Bahamas where she had tea with the Duchess of Windsor. The Duchess, she reported, is bending backwards to give everyone the impression that she and her husband are extremely content in their new berth—so when the visitor asked how she liked Nassau, Her Grace replied enthusiastically that everything was wonderful.

"What, for instance?" asked the guest.

"Why, everything is—just perfect," stammered the Duchess.

"Why we can even get New York on the radio!"

Charlie Adler was telling the Tavern table-sitters about the most elaborate dinner he had ever eaten. It was given at the home of a Hollywood producer who shall be nameless, and when the first course was served on a gold plate Adler lifted his bushy eyebrows but said nothing, figuring it was just a smash curtain raiser. But when the next five courses were served on 14-karat dishes, saucers and platters, Adler remarked upon the gilded pottery.

"Are all the plates solid gold here?" he asked his host in some amazement.

"Of course," snapped the producer. "What do you think—I live like a pig?"

Betty Allen, with her elbows on a Hurricane table, gave out with the tale of an ensign on a British cruiser in the Mediterranean who was reporting to his captain.

"Italian cruiser off the port bow, sir," he said, "but it must be a mirage."

"A mirage!" cried the captain. "Whatever makes you think that?"

"Well, sir," explained the officer, "it's headed towards us!"

The boys on Swing Street, cheered by reports that Joe Frisco will be in Manhattan for the winter, spent the other midnight recalling some of the famous Frisco stories. Teddy Powell liked the one about the time some years back when Frisco was standing under the Palace marquee when the theater was in its five-a-day heyday. Suddenly the air blackened and a terrific thunderstorm broke.

It came down in bucketsful and everybody huddled under the protecting marquee. Frisco, however, startled everybody by leaping hatless into the street and letting the downpour drench him. Finally Jess Block, of Block and Sully shouted: "Joe, are you crazy? Come in out of the rain.'

Frisco shook him head stubbornly, "I haven't w-w-w-worked in t-t-t-two m-m-m-months," he stuttered, "and I keep thinking what rain d-d-d-did f-f-f-for J-J-J-Jeanne Eagles!"

Joe E. Lewis, the Riviera comic, hasn't got a yacht, but Harry Richman has. Joe was complaining about this swank to a couple of cronies the other night.

"Harry's yacht is so ritzy," he said, "that instead of tattoos, the sailors have etchings on their arms!"

Talk turned to the presidential campaign at the Beachcomber last night.

"Did you hear Willkie's speech on the radio?" one of the boys asked agent Walter Batchelor . . . Batchelor shook his head negatively.

"Why not?" he was asked.

"I don't handle him," shrugged Batchelor.

Joyce Matthews and Milton Berle were in Theodore's chatting about the draft.

"I wonder if I'll be called," mused Milton. "I'm just the right age you know."

"I know," heckled Joyce, "but if they've heard your jokes, they'll never believe it!"

A couple of frustrated actors were in a corner of El Morocco the other night when David O. Selznick came in.
